The weekend weather: Friday, high 86, low 45, hum. 58 percent; Saturday, high 80, low 59, hum. 68 percent and .10 inches of rain had fallen; Sunday, high 70, low 62, hum. 70 percent and by 7 a.m. Monday, 1.21 inches of rain had fallen.

An item in the "small world" category: We recently ran a story about how the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Centel Classic will be played at Killlearn Country Club in Tallahassee, Fla., where Marc Brady serves as the golf professional. Marc is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Holland Brady of Tryon. Kangaroo Motorcaddies of Columbus has purchased two spots and will air Kangaroo commercials for a national audience on TBS during its coverage of the Centel Classic Sunday, May 19.

What we didn't know at the time was that Tryon has yet another connection to the tournament. Lon Fellenz, the son of Louis and Virginia 'Skip' Fellenz of Hunting Country Trails, is the executive director of the Centel Classic. Although he works for Centel, he works year round on the tournament and has his office in the Killlearn

Play Reading Group

The Play Reading Group will meet Wednesday, May 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Mural Room of the Tryon Fine Arts Center. The group will be reading, "The Marriage of Bette and Boo," by Christopher Durang. The play was the winner of the coveted Obie Award. It is a coruscatingly funny dissection of marriage and the family in contemporary America.

St. Luke's Thrift Shop Plans Fashion Show At Vineyard

Nan Parsons, director of the fashion show featuring clothing and accessories from St. Luke's Thrift Shop, displays a gown to Sally Berg, one of the volunteer models for "Clothes Are Wonderful... The Second Time Around" at the Vineyard on Friday, May 10.

Proceeds from hard goods brought for resale at the Thrift Shop and sale of merchandise at The Boutique make this event a "fun and fund" day in providing contributions for equipment at St. Luke's Hospital and scholarships for local students continuing their education in health-related careers.
