The weather Tuesday: high 67, low 55, hum. 65 percent, and by 7 a.m. Wednesday .10 inches of rain had fallen.

How about those Lady Wolverines! The girls track team won the state championship, and Karen Godlock breezed past two state records by the huge margins of 11 and 25 seconds!

Then the girls softball team won their first ever conference title behind some spectacular offensive and defensive play. Their first round game in the state play-offs was rained out Tuesday and was to be played Wednesday afternoon at Harmon field, rain or shine.

Congratulations girls, congratulations, congratulations.

Causby Decides To Stay In Polk

Polk County Schools Supt. James F. Causby has decided not to seek the Buncombe County Public Schools superintendents job.

Dr. Causby called various public officials on the phone Wednesday morning, and called a staff meeting to announce his decision.

"It is just not for me," he told the Bulletin. "This is where we want to stay."

Causby was one of two finalists, but said he had called the Buncombe School Board officials to say that he wouldn't return for a second interview, which was to be scheduled this week.

Causby said he wanted to see the projects underway now in Polk County through to completion.

Polk County Schools are currently building a new high school, renovating two other buildings, merging four schools, and rewriting the high school curriculum. In addition, the Polk Central High School

Landrum Takes Second In 1A

The Landrum Lady Cardinals finished second in the South Carolina 1A championships held in Columbia Tuesday.

The Lady Cardinals finished with 56 points, behind John-sonville, which had 82.

Robin Robertson repeated as the state high jump champion with a jump of 5' 1/2", and was third in the 100. She also ran on the winning 400 relay team (50.9 seconds) with Michelle Simpson, Shana McDowell and Leslie Lewellyn.

Nicole Hardin won the 300 low hurdles in a career best time of 46.94 seconds.

Others who placed for Landrum were Caroline Greene, who was second in the high jump; Denise Gosnell, who was third in the 100 high hurdles, and Simpson, who was fourth in the 200.

In the boys competition, Michael Jackson finished fourth in the 400.

An Eagle Flew Over The T.C.C.

On Saturday, May 18 Harry Thompson saw an eagle land when he sank his chip shot for a 3 on the 446 yard par 5 7th hole at the Tryon Country Club. He used a driver, 3 wood and chipped in for his eagle. Needless to say Harry was very pleased with this. He was playing with his wife, Carol, and witnessed by Bertha Russell and Edwina Watson.
