The weather Wednesday: high 85, low 68, hum. 68 percent, and by 7 a.m. Thursday .81 inches of rain had fallen.

We hear there's a good movie in town. A reader called Thursday morning after viewing Sylvester Stallone in Oscar Wednesday night.

"I never liked the guy in anything, but I appreciated that he made a fortune making the same movie five times," our movie critic said.

However, in Oscar he found a campy, very funny 30s-style mobster movie. There's no nudity, no foul language. And be sure to watch for Don Ameche in a cameo appearance as a priest.

What's happening:

The Polk County Wolverine cheerleaders are sponsoring a car wash Saturday, June 22 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Columbus Chevron.

The Pacolet Area Conservancy is sponsoring a river clean-up and float trip Saturday, June 22. Call 894-3018 for more information.

The Friendship Council will hold its annual picnic Saturday, June 22 at 4 p.m. at Harmon

Pony Club

The purpose of the Pony Club is to teach horsemanship and horse management and to encourage team spirit. Visitors can see this for themselves this weekend at FENCE when the Pony Clubs of the Carolina Region meet for their Combined Training Rally.

One hundred Pony Clubbers from both Carolinas, ages 10 to 18 years, will set up on Thursday and pursue a busy schedule until Sunday, all with no adult assistance. In fact, unauthorized assistance is grounds for elimination.)

Dressage competition starts Friday morning (today) at 9:08. Cross-country jumping begins at 8:27 a.m. for Training and Novice Levels, and 11 a.m. for D Level on Saturday. Stadium jumping begins at 8:27 Sunday morning. The stables will be open for visitors on Saturday afternoon. Spectators are welcome and there is no admission fee.

Picnic

It's getting close! This Saturday, June 22, is the Friendship Council Annual Picnic. This year we are inviting the F-A-F (Found-A-Friend) kids and their volunteer "friends" to join us. It's a potluck picnic. Bring a dish to share with others, if you can.

This year we will be ready with indoor facilities if the weather man gives us a taste of what we got last year. Do you remember that rain folks?

P.S. - We are asking our good friends, The Community Fellowship Club in Landrum to join in the fun on Saturday. In case you didn't get the word yet way down south there, this is it, come to the picnic! Make new friends and enjoy the fun. There's entertainment, too.
