We have just received the news that Betty Vosburgh, a former Tryon resident, set two American records in the women's 55 and older at the Birmingham Track Classic, May 25 at Samford University.

She scored with a 57.16 in the 300, and a leap of 13-3 1/2 in the long jump.

More records are sure to fall when Vosburgh enters a new age group this month.

What's happening:

The Tryon-Thermal Belt Chamber of Commerce will hold a special membership meeting at The Vineyard tomorrow at 8 a.m., for the purpose of electing new directors.

Hundreds of hardback books will be offered for 25 cents each, and paperbacks for 10 cents at the Isothermal Community College book and music sale Thursday and Friday on the Polk campus lawn.

Sub Teacher Orientation Thursday, August 1

The orientation for new substitute teachers in Polk County will be Thursday, August 1 from 9 to 11 a.m. in the Board Room at Stearns Education Center, 202 E. Mills Street in Columbus.

Correction

Last week it was reported in error that the Polk County Democratic Men's Club was to have met last Saturday, July 20. The meeting, in fact, is scheduled for this coming Saturday, July 27, 8:30 a.m., at the Democratic Headquarters in Columbus.

This reporting was the fault of the Men's Club secretary. He apologizes for this error, especially to those who came to the headquarters Saturday morning expecting a meeting to be held.

Meetings are normally scheduled for the fourth Saturday in every month. All Democratic men are invited to the meeting on Saturday. Biscuits and coffee will be served.

Meets Tonight

Tryon City Lodge #518 P.H.F.&A.M. will meet tonight (Tuesday) at 8 p.m. Robert Fox, Wm; George R. Fant, Sec.

Baby 'Miss South Carolina'

Elizabeth Grace Fagan of Irmo, S.C. participated in the Baby Miss South Carolina Pageant on June 30. The current Baby Miss Irmo was one of 31 contestants from across the state in the pageant which was held at Embassy Suites in Columbia. She was chosen 1st Runner-Up for which she won a savings bond, trophy and ride-on toy.

Elizabeth is the daughter of Gregg and Karen Fagan, formerly of Tryon. She has an older brother, Alex.

Out of town relatives attending the pageant were: Mrs. and Mrs. Allen Pruette of Tryon; Cappy Pruette of Spartanburg; Pat Pruette of Greenville and Janice Fagan of Green Creek.

Leave For Junior Olympics

Qualifiers from the Polk County Blue Streaks and their coaches leave this week for the University of N.C. at Chapel Hill to participate in the National Junior Olympics. Karen Godlock and Seth Peoples finished as one of the top three in their events in regional competition to qualify to run in the national finals.

They have spent the month of July in training with their coaches, Alan Peoples and Steve Aldred. Godlock will compete in the 3000M and the 1500M runs, and Peoples will run in the 3000M.

Godlock and Peoples are members of the Polk County Blue Streaks, a TAC-affiliated youth group. It is a non-profit organization and depends solely on contributions from the community for its expenses. If anyone would like to help with the cost of this week's trip, please send the contribution to Tryon Federal Savings and Loan.
