A crowd of about 150 people spread out lawn chairs and blankets at Stearns Park Saturday evening and enjoyed the folk music of "Run For Your Life." The temperature was perfect, the company was swell, and the music was great.

And once Zeke Graves threw the light switch on the beautiful park gazebo, you could even see the band.

Thank goodness this was just the first in a series of September Saturday night concerts in the park! Zeke, Jacob and Claude Graves will be entertaining this Saturday at 7 p.m.

Warren Carson of Tryon, an English instructor at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg (USCS), was featured on the front page of the Upstate section of the Spartanburg Herald-Journal Monday.

The accompanying story was about a movement in education to infuse historical lessons with information on the accomplishments of Africans and African-Americans - information which

Lake Lanier Man Guilty Of Murder

The attorneys for Richard Longworth of Lake Lanier put up no defense last week and Longworth was found guilty of murder.

He was convicted in connection with the robbery of the Westgate Mall Cinema IV and murder of two workers there.

The jury was considering Monday whether Longworth, who did not testify, should die in the electric chair or get life in prison.

O.P. Earle PTA Meets Tonight

Wednesday Walks

You can still see wildflowers at FENCE, and the Wednesday morning walks will continue throughout September and October.

The next one is tomorrow, Sept. 11 at 10 a.m.

Bob Payne and Shane have a stringer of fish caught on one of their days spent together. What a great time these two, involved in the Found-A-Friend program, must have had. If you can spend approximately four hours a week of quality time with a youth from our community, please call Bobbie Shannon at Found-A-Friend, 859-6661. There is a need in our community that you might be able to fill as a friend.

Police Chase Suspect All Over I-26 To Make Arrest Friday

A suspect in the burglary of Holy Cross Episcopal Church and several other break-ins in four counties led police on a chase up and down Saluda Mountain Friday evening.

Thomas Thurman Dillard, in his late 30s, was finally arrested when he abandoned his car near the rest area south of Columbus and tried to flee into the woods.

Polk County Sheriff's deputies and Columbus Police Officer Chris Abril captured Dillard at the interstate boundary fence.

Police in Jackson County tried to arrest Dillard Thursday night at a motel, Polk County Sheriff Boyce Carswell said. Dillard escaped out a window there, but $10,000 in stolen goods was recovered from his car.

The Polk County Sheriff's office was notified that Dillard might be traveling north on I-26 Friday evening, and when deputy Bill Ives saw him, he pulled his police vehicle in behind Dillard's pick-up truck.

Carswell said that Ives tried to pull Thurman over, but that Dillard cut across the median strip and headed back down the mountain. Columbus officer Abril joined the chase and after more maneuvers back and forth across the median strip the two officers were able to force Dillard off the road.

Carswell said the pick-up truck Dillard was driving was
