Cars Collide Near A&P On Hwy. 176

Tryon Police Office Gail Nonamaker investigated an accident near the Tryon A&P grocery store Friday at 4:53 p.m.

According to the police report, Bonita Baker Peterson was driving a 1968 Mercury out of the A&P parking lot when she struck the 1983 Toyota driven by Johnny Bell Mullins of Landrum.

Peterson apparently pulled out before Mullins had completed his turn into the parking lot, causing the collision.

Peterson was charged with a safe movement violation.

Designs Sets For 'Fiddler'

George Finnie, well known here as a set designer and artist, is designing the sets for Fiddler on the Roof, the musical that Tryon Little Theater will present at the Fine Arts Center September 26-29.

The action in the play takes place in Anatevka, a fictitious little village in Russia around 1905, on the eve of the revolutionary period. Finnie's scenic design has been compared favorably with that of the picturesque styles of the tiny Russian villages made famous in the paintings of Marc Chagall.

Commenting on the sets being constructed on stage, Finnie says, "I continue to be amazed at the ingenuity of the set construction crew headed by John Young, including Bob Thomas, Bob Beam, Fred Minard, Mark
