The weather Wednesday, high 70, low 61, hum. 50 percent and by Thursday at 7 a.m. .42 inches of rain had fallen.

Nature's Storehouse is now open on South Trade Street, in the old Pantry building next to the car wash. Stop by and say hello to Shelly and Doug in their new quarters.

Former Gov. Jim Hunt came to the Western Steer in Columbus Wednesday to announce that he will be announcing his campaign announcement next year.

Not knowing all the ins and outs of statecraft, our interpretation of this turn of phrase is that Hunt is running for the Democratic nomination for governor.

You may recall that Lacey Thornburg appears interested as well.

Hunt asked the assembled group of Polk County Democrats whether or not Western North Carolina is better off now than it was six years ago. He cited SAT scores, infant mortality rates, crime, and the state budget mess as examples of a big comedown for the state.

He said his campaign will be
