The weather Thursday, high 76, low 55, hum. 56 percent.

All people care about children. That's one thing Mary Allen Maxwell said she has learned over the last 10 months as president of the North Carolina School Boards Association.

Maxwell visited Polk County Thursday. The local press was invited to join her for lunch at the Red Fox, along with Polk County Board of Education chairman Georgia Pack, board member Ann Whitmire and others.

"People respect educators as professionals," she said. However, her constituents, school board members, are in a very political business, she said, and do not always receive the respect they deserve.

Maxwell, who has served on the Currituck school board for nine years, said she spends a lot of her time as state president delivering talks encouraging school board members in the good work they are doing. She also talks about relationships between boards and school superintendents.

Maxwell said most problems occur when board members

Fiddler To Be Repeated Sat.

Because the demand for tickets far exceeded the supply, and many individuals were unable to see the show that was presented Sept. 26-29, the Tryon Little Theater production of Fiddler on the Roof will be repeated on Saturday, Oct. 5 at 8 p.m. at the Fine Arts Center.

This will be a one-time-only repeat. A fifth performance represents a landmark for TLT. It will be the first time a production has been presented for more than the normally scheduled four performances.

Christine Fitch, director of the musical, says that all the members of the cast and others associated with the play are looking forward eagerly to the additional performance.

The box office will be open Tuesday through Friday only from 10 a.m. until noon and one hour before curtain time.

Foothills Duplicate Bridge

St. Luke's Auxiliary Annual Meeting

Mrs. William Kuhn, left, Mrs. Ralph G. Milner, Right, and Mrs. Bruce Bennett, absent for picture, will serve as co-chairmen in charge of arrangements for the Annual Meeting of St. Luke's Hospital Auxiliary on Wednesday, Oct. 9, in the Parish Hall of Holy Cross Episcopal Church on Melrose Avenue. Tickets at $7.50 each for the Fellowship Reception at noon with Buffet Luncheon catered by Brannon's at 12:30 p.m. may be obtained at St. Luke's Thrift Shop on Trade Street or at the Volunteer Office, St. Luke's Hospital.

Joseph G. Claud, chairman of St. Luke's Hospital Board of Trustees, and Thomas Bradshaw, hospital president, will give up-to-date reports on activities of St. Luke's. The guest speaker will be Fran Green, vice president of nursing at Memorial Mission Medical Center in Asheville, who presented a welcome greeting to members attending the North Carolina Society of Volunteers and Auxiliaries at the District I Workshop in Asheville on May 29.

Cunningham Makes Executive Council

Agent Richard Cunningham of Columbus has qualified as a member of the 1991 Executive Council of New York Life Insurance Co., according to William H. Holt, CFP, general manager of the company's Greenville general office in Greenville, S.C.

Council membership is based on 1990-91 sales performance. As an Executive Council member, Cunningham is invited to attend a four day educational conference.
