Public radio talk show host Garrison Keillor was on the air Saturday night talking about the Minnesota Twins.

Keillor is from Minnesota, as is his mythical Lake Wobegon. It's no wonder he is partisan.

Minnesota must win, he said, because they represent "all that's right with America". The Braves, he pointed out, had only 800 people attending some games during previous losing seasons. Those filling the stands during the series, he said, were "upstart yuppie trash."

"And the Tomahawk Chop," he said. "It's unseemly. And Jane Fonda. Jane Fonda doing the Tomahawk Chop right there on television. Oh, go back to Hanoi Jane."

Well, Garrison's wish came true. The Twins eked out a win at the last moment Sunday night. It was sad to see such a great series end with anyone going home a loser.

In fact it's downright hard to

Students To Preach In Area Churches

Gardner-Webb College will hold Ministerial Education Day in the Polk Baptist Association Nov. 3.

The Association encompasses the 21 Southern Baptist churches in Polk County, including Columbus, Green Creek, Mill Spring and Tryon. The Rev. Lee Gregory is the Director of Missions.

Ministerial Education Day is a partnership program between associations in the Piedmont and western sections of North Carolina and Gardner-Webb College. Churches who commit to participate allow a Gardner-Webb ministerial student to preach in the Sunday morning worship service.

Students are then evaluated by the minister of the church as well as the College's campus minister. This input helps students preparing for the ministry increase their preaching skill and competence.

Last year, Gardner-Webb students had 136 opportunities to preach in 15 associations.

Church participating in the Ministerial Education Day program follow: Columbus Baptist Church, Coopers Gap Baptist Church, Faith Temple Baptist Church, Morgan Chapel Baptist Church, Pea Ridge Baptist Church, Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, Sandy Springs Baptist Church and Silver Creek Baptist Church.

Lynn Hendrix

Receives Scholarship

Lynn Hendrix has received the first scholarship granted by the Polk County Campus I.C.C. Foundation, it was announced by Ted Proudfoot, president of the Foundation.

The $1,000 scholarship is good for one academic year at Isothermal Community College. Carole Bartol, chairperson of the Polk County Campus I.C.C. Foundation scholarship committee, said that the Foundation is delighted to award its first scholarship to Lynn Hendrix.

"She is most deserving of this scholarship," said Mrs. Bartol. "Lynn Hendrix has demonstrated qualities of dedication and determination that will serve her well in the years ahead."

Lynn Hendrix has started the fall quarter at the Polk County Campus. She is now taking

Former Captain Of 'Old Ironsides' Speaks

Most of us know something about the USS Constitution or "Old Ironsides" but we know only a few of the historical highlights. Now we are going to have the opportunity to hear other interesting stories of the famous frigate's 194 year career - including the fact that a well known Polk County family has had three relatives who served on "Old Ironsides."

Our speaker for the Nov. 5th, 2:30 p.m. meeting of the Polk County Historical Assn. will be Commander Tyrone Martin, U.S. Navy Ret., a career naval officer with service in both the Korean and Vietnam wars. His final command was the USS Constitution during the period of the nation's Bicentennial. Since his retirement, he has actively pursued a career of researching and writing naval history, especially the period of the early U.S. sailing navy. His efforts has been recognized by a George Washington Honor Medal from the Freedom Foundation of Valley Forge, by being designated a Samuel Eliot Morison Distinguished Scholar, and, most recently, by his election as Overseer of the USS Constitution Museum.

Cmdr. Martin and his wife, Mary, have been Tryon residents since June, 1989.
