The weekend weather: Friday, high 73, low 44, hum. 77 percent; Saturday, high 62, low 46, hum. 48 percent, and .27 inches of rain fell; Sunday, high 56, low 43, hum. 55 percent.

If you live in Tryon, Columbus, Landrum or Saluda - take time today to go vote.

Be glad shoppers for the personal attention you receive in the Thermal Belt. Even if the sales clerk does not know your name, which most often he does, you can almost count on careful, courteous service.

We visited Atlanta over the weekend and surely missed that personal touch. The hotel goofed up the bill, and we had to ask twice before it was corrected.

The waitress at Dante's Down the Hatch gave us the wrong check. When we got the right check, she failed to split the cost between cash and charge, as we requested, charging the full amount and pocketing the cash.

On the way home, we stopped for coffee in a fast food restaurant and received change for a ten when we had given a twenty. We noticed this while

Show Jumping Clinic Still Open To Auditors

Even though entries have closed for the show jumping clinic to be held at FENCE Nov. 16-17, there are still plenty of spaces for auditors and the Saturday night supper is open to everyone. Ronnie Mutch, two-time US Olympic Show Jumping team member, is the instructor. FENCE and the Blue Ridge Hunter Jumper Association are the sponsors.

The price for auditors is $25 a day or $40 for the weekend. Auditors will be allowed in the ring and they will be able to hear everything. Reservations are not necessary.

The Saturday night party will be a pot luck supper starting at 7 p.m. Riders' supper tickets are included in their weekend cost, but the price to everyone else is $5. FENCE and the BRHJA will supply the main course and everyone is to bring a dish. Mr. Mutch will be there to give a talk and answer questions.

For more information call Betsy Pack, 704-894-8127, or Susan Towson, 803-457-3896.

Communication

Dear Jeff:

A couple of weeks ago, Bernie and Doreen (Pearson) Janicki had some unexpected visitors at their hillside home at Melrose. Doreen has written a humorous poem about their unusual experience.

'Twas a fall day so fine it would make your heart sing,
But who could have guessed what this fine day would bring?

On this fair afternoon at along about four

Bernie happened to look through the livingroom door
And called out to Doreen in both shock and surprise,

"Come see, I can scarcely believe my own eyes."

And neither could I, for alack and alas,

Three goats stood there staring at us through the glass!

In Remembrance

On Sun., Nov. 10, at 3 p.m. there will be memorial service at the Columbus Presbyterian Church for Hospice patients who have died during the past year. Hospice's Family Care Coordinator Nan Shively has issued invitations to the families of the 38 patients lost. This day will also honor the Hospice people who have had the privilege of caring for these courageous individuals.

The Reverend Fred Kurkowski will deliver the meditation. Other clergy participating will be Dr. Claude Broach, Dr. Darryl Maxwell and Dr. Timothy Holland, chaplain for Hospice and pastor of the host church. Volunteers Dr. Stephen Aldrich and Betty Aldrich will serve as ushers.

Guest musicians will be vocal soloist Laura Miller and organist Mary Ann Kilver.

A reception in Fellowship Hall, arranged by Volunteer Susie House, will follow the service.

The Columbus Presbyterian Church is located at the corner of Peniel Rd. and Walker St. Friends are welcome to attend.
