Commissioners Want Changes In Sign Law

The haggling over a sign ordinance for Polk County reached down to the details Monday night.

No agreement as to any final law was reached by the Polk County Board of Commissioners. In fact, by a vote of three-to-two, the board decided not to pass the sign ordinance on first reading, even with several amendments.

Commissioners Sue Cochran, Carson Deck and John Edwards voted against passage, saying they wanted to see a revised draft of the ordinance before accepting it.

The vote, however, was virtually meaningless, County Attorney R. Jay Foster said. Since the board could only hold a "first reading" of the ordinance Monday, it didn't matter how the vote went or even if a vote was taken.

It would have taken a unanimous vote to approve the ordinance on first reading, Foster said. On second reading, however, a simple majority vote can pass the ordinance.

Board chairman Jeannie Martin said Tuesday that all the board members had agreed after the meeting that they would be ready to take a vote at the board's next meeting, Dec. 16 at 3 p.m.

"I am pretty sure the sign ordinance will be passed," commissioner Sue Cochran said Tuesday. But Cochran said she

Planning A Cap & Mitten Christmas Tree

The staff at Saluda Medical Center, June, Kitty, Pam and Beverly are planning a special cap and mitten Christmas tree.

The caps and mittens will be given to any child between the ages of birth and 12 years of age who needs a warm cap and or a pair of mittens.

If you would like to donate a cap and or mittens or check please visit the Medical Center located on Greenville St. or mail to P.O. Box 577, Saluda, N.C. 28773.

As each present disappears a Christmas ornament will take its place. (Photo by Ceri Dando) —Community Reporter

Godlock To Participate In National Championship

Polk County's Karen Godlock finished fourth in the Kinney Cross Country South Regional meet held Sat., Nov. 30 at Charlotte's McAlpine Park. By being among the top eight finishes at this meet Karen has earned the right to participate in the national finals in San Diego on Dec. 14.

This is the 13th year that Kinney Shoes has sponsored a national championship in cross country. The United States is divided into four regions and the top eight from each region participate in the national championships in San Diego.

In the south regional Megan Flowers of Texas was 1st with a time of 17:46; 2nd Kathi Ward of Florida 18:02; 3rd. Meghan McCarthy of Virginia 18:10 and 4th. Karen Godlock of Polk County with a time of 18:12.

Also participating in the regional meet from Polk County
