

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 3, 204 WALKER ST.
COLUMBUS, N C 28722
11 NOV 91

2nd Class Postage at Tryon, North Carolina 28782 and additional post offices. Postmaster: send address changes to The Tryon Daily Bulletin, P.O. Box 790, Tryon, N. C. 28782

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Founded Jan. 31, 1928 by Seth M. Vining
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Jeffrey A. Byrd, Editor and Publisher

The Tryon Daily Bulletin (USPS 643-360) is published daily except Sat. and Sun. for $35 per year by the Tryon Daily Bulletin, Inc. 106 N. Trade St., P.O. Box 790, Tryon, N.C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Phone 859-9151

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

40 Pages Today

Vol. 65 - No. 211

TRYON, N. C. 28782

FRIDAY, DEC. 6, 1991

20¢ Per Copy

CURB DEPARTER
The weather Wednesday, high 52, low 30, hum. 45 percent. It's cold.

The Charlotte Observer in a front page story Wednesday described N.C. lawmakers recently heightened concern over out-of-state students attending N.C. schools basically tuition free.

The issue was raised, the story says, by the Polk County Association of County Taxpayers (ACT). With 40 S.C. students attending Polk County Schools, Polk County had the most out-of-state students of eight border counties surveyed by the Observer staff.

ACT has been campaigning to right this travesty of taxpayer justice for some time now. It may be that North Carolina will look at South Carolina, which does charge out-of-state tuition, and ask tit for tat.

"The taxpayers are getting ripped off," Walt Hamill, president of ACT, told the Observer, singing the ACT theme song.

Maybe. Maybe not. But it surely would be a shame if we wound up chasing away our neighbors and friends from our schools. Let's hope in their zeal

(Continued On Back Page)

Tryon Christmas Parade Dec. 11

The Tryon Volunteer Firemen's Christmas Parade will be Wednesday, Dec. 11 at 4:30 p.m. This year's parade will be led by Grand Marshall Bob Caldwell, weathercaster and feature reporter for WLOS-13. Mr. Caldwell has been with WLOS since 1966 and is a familiar face to our area.

There is still time for anyone - churches, clubs, etc. - to enter a unit in the parade. Cash prizes for non-professional floats will be awarded to the first 3 places.

Santa's arrival will be the Grand Finale as usual. He will be available after the parade to take those last minute Christmas requests from the children. (Parents you can find him behind the Fire Dept.)

Each year the Firemen distribute bags of fruit and candy after the parade and invite everyone to come by and get theirs.

The Firemen welcome entries to this year's parade and hope to make it the best one yet. For more information call Fred Edwards 859-3148, Ronnie Pack 859-5298 or Jimmy Lankford 859-5365. Donations may be given to any Firemen or left at the Tryon Daily Bulletin.

Merry Christmas - see you at the parade! - The Tryon Fire Dept. Christmas Parade Committee.

Karen Godlock

Fourth-Place Finish

Karen Godlock, Polk County track star, is seen crossing the finish line at the Kinney Cross Country South Regional meet held Nov. 30.

Godlock finished fourth among the girls, with a time of 18:12.0, just 25.8 seconds off the lead.

Godlock will compete in the Kinney national finals in San Diego on Dec. 14.

Workshop On Sign Ordinance Scheduled

The Polk County Board of Commissioners has scheduled a workshop to discuss the details of the proposed sign ordinance.

The board will meet at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 11 at the courthouse annex. All meetings of the full board are open to the public.

The board is scheduled to vote on the ordinance Dec. 16.

A summary of the Ordinance is inside today's Bulletin.

Non-Door Prize From Humane Society

Well known animal artist Nancy Pellatt will donate a drawing of the winner's pet for the lucky drawer of the non-door prize to be given at the Foothills Humane Society's Make Believe Ball.

Invitations have been mailed for this annual event, which the Society says is "just about the most popular event of the year for us."

Anyone who has not received an invitation is urged to phone the Humane Society Shelter today, 863-4444, to receive one and respond in time for the drawing, Saturday, Dec. 14, the date of the Ball.

Pellatt's work has been widely exhibited, and was on view recently at the Sporting Arts show at Pine Crest Inn. One of the Society's many volunteers will make the drawing Dec. 14.

-Community Reporter