Local Shooters On College Teams

The Polk County Gun Club can proudly claim to have four of its junior members on NCAA Varsity College rifle teams this season.

Robin McCall of Tryon is a sophomore mechanical engineering student and co-captain of the Ohio State University Rifle Team which finished third nationally last year.

Erik Forsgren of Hendersonville is a sophomore computer science student and a member of the Citadel Rifle Team.

Brent Edwards and Danny Ledford of Tryon are both freshman mechanical engineering students and members of the N.C. State University Rifle Team.

They are all home for the holidays visiting their families.

Russian Artists At Fine Arts Center

On January 5, 1992, at the Tryon Fine Arts Center there will be a very unusual art show and reception to which the public is invited. Two Russian artists (now living in Hendersonville) Vasily and Julia Polevoy will be showing their art works. The Polevoys together with their 25 year old daughter came to Hendersonville in May of 1990 from USSR. The Polevoys are trained artists who worked in Russia all of their lives. One could say that there is some Russian soil clinging to their shoes. The couples work shows the poetic visions with roots in the Soviet life and folklore and Russian iconography.

Julia Polevoy graduated from the Moscow Institute of Advanced Art with her studies concentrated in mural painting. Vasily Polevoy studied at the Higher Pedagogical University of Arts and Science in Leningrad. Both enjoyed a highly successful career with commissions from the Soviet government for murals and paintings throughout the country and the Columbian Embassy.

Life changed for the Polevoys when they began to try to practice their Christian faith more freely. Their membership in the Union of Artists, which guaranteed access to art materials and commissions was revoked. Frustrated in efforts to follow their religious beliefs and denied a future in art, they
