

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 3, 204 WALKER ST.
COLUMBUS, N.C. 28722
11 NOV 91

2nd Class Postage at Tryon, North Carolina 28782 and additional post offices. Postmaster: send address changes to The Tryon Daily Bulletin, P.O. Box 790, Tryon, N.C. 28782

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Founded Jan. 31, 1928 by Seth M. Vining
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Jeffrey A. Byrd, Editor and Publisher

The Tryon Daily Bulletin (USPS 643-360) is published daily except Sat. and Sun. for $35 per year by the Tryon Daily Bulletin, Inc. 106 N. Trade St., P.O. Box 790, Tryon, N.C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Phone 859-9151

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

18 Pages Today

Vol. 65 - No. 236

TRYON, N.C. 28782

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 15, 1992

20¢ Per Copy

The weather Tuesday, high 49, low 45, hum. 75 percent; and by 7 a.m. Tuesday .38 inches of rain had fallen.

South Carolina students have been crossing the border to attend schools in Tryon for 71 years. That's the figure Ellis Fincher Sr. turned up recently after researching the question.

Seventy one years.

What's happening:

The Polk County junior varsity and varsity football banquet will be held in Polk Central High School's cafeteria at 6:30 tonight.

Bids are being accepted through Saturday on pottery from Little Mountain Pottery in a silent auction at the Polk County Library. The proceeds will enable the library to purchase books and equipment.

The N.C. Jazz Ensemble will perform at the Tryon Fine Arts Center Jan. 18 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $10 each and are on sale at the TFAC box office.

Auditions will be held Jan. 18th at 6 p.m. for the Saluda Stage Co.'s upcoming presentation of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream." For more information call Kate Brighton at 749-3186.

(Continued On Back Page)

Juvenile Charged

At approximately 5:30 p.m. Jan. 8, an 11 year old juvenile from Landrum was charged with the burglary at Whites Auto in Landrum, and the petty larceny of a .77 caliber pellet gun valued at $40.

Mark Price of the Landrum Water Department and Bruce Cogdell, Captain of the Landrum Rescue Squad, observed the juvenile inside of the business, and called the police department. Quick response by Officer Roger Janney and Lt. Terry Ducker resulted in the immediate apprehension and recovery of the stolen property.

While interviewing the juvenile, with his parents, information was revealed leading to the recovery of an additional $400 in stolen property that was hidden in the woodline off of Bomar Avenue in Landrum. The juvenile will be referred to the Department of Youth Services for adjudication and was released to the custody of his parents.

Chief Gary Laughter praised Mr. Price and Mr. Cogdell for their alertness and quick response in notifying the police department. Chief Laughter expressed a desire for all citizens to get involved and make the safety of Landrum a community effort.

—Community Reporter

A New Arrival

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Franks of Mill Spring Jan. 8 at Park Ridge Hospital.

'Holiday Express' At Green Creek School

"Holiday Express" was the theme of the December PTO program at Green Creek Elementary School. Students in all grades sang songs and shared holiday customs and traditions from countries all over the world. The students were especially proud of the songs they learned in Spanish and German. The program was directed by Mrs. Susan Cavin. Community Reporter

Benefit Concert

The Church of the Good Shepherd needs an organ. On January 26, at 3:30 in the Parish Hall of the Church of the Holy Cross in Tryon, an afternoon of music will be presented featuring distinguished artists well known in this area. Appearing on the program will be the Melrose Trio, The Carolines, the piano duet team of Mary Lou Burch and Jacqueline Poluianchik; Janice Janiec, soprano, Magdalena May, soprano, and Stanley Poluianchik, bass.

Wessye Jackson will introduce the program. Following the program there will be a reception and refreshments, and the opportunity to greet the guest artists. Donations will be greatly appreciated.

—Community Reporter

Greene Graduates

Daniel Duane Greene of Columbus graduated from Appalachian State University Dec. 9 with a bachelor of science degree.

Greene majored in music industry studies, and music merchandising. His minor was marketing.