*The weather Thursday: high
61, low 34, hum. 50%. Beautiful!*

In addition to collecting classic bamboo fly fishing rods, Wallace W. Lockwood of Tryon collects limericks. He shared one with us last week. It goes like this:

There was a lady from St. Paul,

Who wore a newspaper dress to a ball.

*But it caught on fire,
And burned her entire,
Front Page, Sports Section
and all.*

What's happening:

The box office opened today for Tryon Little Theater's upcoming production of Come Blow Your Horn. Mail orders are being accepted now with a coupon running in The Bulletin. The play takes the stage March 5, 6, 7, and 8.

Yukito T. Davis, a well known teacher of Ikebana from Hendersonville, will demonstrate a Japanese Tea Ceremony for patrons of the Lanier Library Wednesday at 2:30 p.m.

Tax Help

Need help filing your tax return? Older citizens are encouraged to visit the AARP free Tax-Aide counseling center at the Meeting Place. Bring your last year's return.

It is open every Wednesday by appointment. Call the Meeting Place, 859-9707 for an appointment.

Also - Any family with children, and an income of less than $21,000 needs to check to see if the government owes them money. They probably qualify for the Earned Income Credit, whether they pay tax or not. Call 859-9289 if you have questions.

Meet To Decide On Girl Scout Property

There will be a meeting concerning the future of the Girls Scout property at Lake Lanier on Tuesday, Feb. 25th at 7 p.m. at Stearns School auditorium for all people interested.
