Dagget To Speak At EPIC Meeting

EPIC (Education in Polk County is Crucial) wishes to invite all parents and interested persons to attend an open meeting on Fri., Mar. 6, from 3:15 to 4 p.m. with Dr. Willard Dagget to discuss the changes which will be made in grading and assessment of student progress as the Polk County schools move toward an outcome-based education. The meeting will be held in the Tryon High Cafeteria.

Also, on Sat., Mar. 14, the public is invited to join EPIC members for a guided tour of the new high school facility. Anyone wishing to attend should meet at Stearns Education Center at 3 p.m.

It would be helpful in planning this tour if those wishing to participate would call Stearns Center, 894-3051 prior to Mar. 14. In case of heavy rain, this tour will be rescheduled.

Clarification

An important point was left out of a report of St. Luke's Hospital Auxiliary's recent board meeting. St. Luke's Hospital is now classified as an "assigned hospital" which means that no patient is ever charged for blood while in St. Luke's, only for processing.

Slater Award Requests Are In

Teachers in schools in Polk County and Landrum have submitted their applications for the Priscilla and Ellis D. Slater Awards to Promote Excellence in Teaching. Fund requests for teachers' projects total $30,825.

Twenty-seven teachers from eight schools are taking advantage of this opportunity to try for a grant to carry through some action plan to improve their classroom teaching.

All applicants will be interviewed Mar. 12 and 13 by the full Slater Award Committee, co-chairmen Lib Correll and John Lewis.

Polk County Community Foundation administers the Slater Awards program and disburses the funds.
