rain fell; Saturday, high 77, low 49, hum. 40 percent and 1.60 inches of rain fell; Sunday, high

Seen on the Tryon Theater marquis this weekend:
"Hand holding welcome here."
The movie playing was Hook.

One of the season's first political anecdotes: Jeannie Martin received a lot of support for her continued presence on the Polk County Board of Commissioners after announcing her intention not to seek reelection a month or so ago.

One of the most important supporters was her son, Jonathan. While riding to school one morning, Jonathan said: "Mom, if you decide to run again, and I sure hope you do, I have a great campaign poster slogan for you: Too Legit to Quit."

Kids.

A springtime treat: A reader called to remind us all that the Farwell Garden next to the Tryon Fine Arts Center is at its peak now. Stop by and enjoy it.

Bike-A-Thon Riders Fight Childhood Cancer

Janice Miller has called on all Landrum residents to join the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Wheels For Life Bike-A-Thon slated for Sat., Mar. 21 at 9 a.m. at Southside Baptist Church.

Volunteer workers and riders are needed for this Bike-A-Thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center in its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases. "We're looking for riders and helpers who will contribute their time and talent to help children live.
We really need lots of riders, since they are the ones who can make this Bike-A-Thon successful," Mrs. Miller said. In the Wheels For Life Bike-A-Thon, riders ask sponsors to make a donation based on each mile completed. All riders turning in money will receive a certificate.
Those who raise $30 will get a certificate and a special St. Jude T-Shirt. When $75 is raised, the rider receives a sports bag, as well as the certificate and T-Shirt.

"The real prize, though, is the pride everyone can take in giving children a chance to live a normal life," Janice said.

Contact Janice Miller at 457-4498 for details on riding or sponsoring a rider.

St. Jude Hospital was founded by Danny Thomas, and operates primarily from public support.

Columbus Manager Laments State, Federal Regulations

State and federal regulations being passed along by Columbus's "comrades" in Raleigh are going to cost the town between $50,000 and $60,000 next year, town administrator Butch Smith told the council last Thursday.

"You can kill a man with a .22, but they're using machine guns," Smith said.

He talked with the council about "safe confinement" regulations, "hazardous communication" regulations, among others. And, he said, Columbus was reclassified because it services Hatch Mill and its water and sewer treatment permits were increased in cost and made more strict.

"We're looking at leaner times coming up," he said.

In other action, the council appointed Dave Butts to a two-year term and Mark West to a one-year term, both on the Columbus Fire Department advisory board.
