Speaker Discusses "God's Message"

Geraldine Schiering, C.S.B., of Atlanta, Ga., will speak on the subject, "God's Great Message To Humanity," on Sunday, March 29, at 3 p.m. in Fellowship Hall, Tryon Presbyterian Church, Harmon Field Road. The lecture is free, and open to the public.

A Christian Science teacher, practitioner, and lecturer, Mrs. Schiering is visiting Tryon at the invitation of the local Christian Science Church, which is sponsoring the event. The Fellowship Hall has been graciously provided by Tryon Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Schiering, a graduate of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, is a third generation Christian Scientist, a student of the Bible, a contributor to church periodicals, and a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship. She will be introduced by Dana Lovell, who is currently First Reader of the Tryon Christian Science Church, and is also involved with the 4-H Youth Foundation, and is a member of the Board of Thermal Belt Outreach Ministry.

It is inspiring to consider the old loved Bible events and those early worshippers of God in Bible times, and see them as messages to us in our time. Likewise, there comes to us in our time the real meaning of the teaching and practice of Christ Jesus.
