

Pony Club News

Polk Clubbers have been busy during February and March. All the members are working hard.

February 9, Ms. Estella Lindsey from Five Jokers Farm did the D2 and D3 testing.

Results were: Jan Newton completed D2 and D3. Patrick Simon, Angela Roland, Shannon Rhodes and Katie Arrowsmith passed their D2 tests. Harriett Goodrich gave the D1 test and Andrew Gossenreiter passed D1.

Ms. Lindsey and her assistant Janet Phillips took special time to give carefree instruction to riders on their strong points and how to improve on their weaker points.

February 15, after much hard work, the T.L.C. Pony Club team competed at the Coachwood Combined Dressage and Jumping test in Simpsonville, S.C. Despite torrents of rain thru most of the day Jan Newton on Rocky earned 3rd place in the Pre Novice Division; Shannon Rhodes on Charity placed 2nd in the D1 Dressage Test, Tadpole Division. Patrick Simon rode in the Pre Novice Dressage and Jumping also holding his own in the down-pour.

March 8, Mrs. Martha Kemmer held a dressage clinic for our club. Riders learned quite a bit that afternoon and enjoyed having Mrs. Kemmer instructing.

Dr. Harry and Mrs. Tippy Brown shared their cross country course with the club and Kelly and Annette Murphy gave the club a fun time Beagling. Karen Heckman instructs our riders. The Pony Club is open to anyone who has children. Meetings are alternate Sundays from 2 to 4 p.m. Next meeting will be April 6.

For more information, call Karen Heckman at 859-7574 or Harriett Goodrich at 894-2609.
