

Foundation Brings Health Care Message

"I don't plan to focus exclusively on hospital problems. I'll put off preparing my remarks until the latest possible time, to be sure they are absolutely current. And, I'll be happy to receive questions and comments from the audience - open discussion is always enjoyable."

This message comes from Clarence McCauley, president of the N.C. Hospital Association (NCHA), who will address the Polk County Community Foundation Dutch Treat Luncheon and 17th Annual Meeting, Tuesday, April 14.

The speaker has been president of NCHA since 1980, after affiliation with many other hospitals since 1958.

Morgan Center, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Hwy. 108, Lynn, will be the scene of this event, beginning at noon Tuesday, April 14.

Advance tickets are necessary, and are available for $6.50 at NationsBank, Columbus and Tryon, and at the Foundation office Tuesday and Thursday, 8 a.m. to noon. There will be no door sales.

AREA'S FINEST DINING!

Historic Lake Lure Inn

You are too close to this area's most unique dining experience to miss out now. Enjoy the quaint charm and interesting history of the famous Lake Lure Inn. Since 1927 this Inn on the Lake has entertained the likes of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Emily Post and F. Scott Fitzgerald. Patrick Swayze and the entire crew of the movie "Dirty Dancing" stayed here while filming. Our chef is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America and serves dinner each night Tuesday through Saturday, plus a fabulous brunch every Sunday. Visit this Little Waldorf of the South, a member of the prestigious Historic Hotels of America and recommended by the American Automobile Association.
