Outreach Ministry

The Thermal Belt Outreach Ministry (TBOM) was the recipient of a check for $570 at the March 16 PYP meeting at the Tryon Presbyterian Church.

This donation was the result of a book sale conducted by PYP on Feb. 29 at the church. Nancy McPherson presented the check to Eloise Thwing, Chairman of the TBOM Board.

It is anticipated that other church groups will be raising funds to support this joint church activity. For further information about TBOM, call their office in the Columbus Methodist Church, Mon. through Fri. at 894-2988.

Red Fox Men Open Season

Opening Day for the Red Fox Men's Golf Association's 1992 season is scheduled for Wednesday, April 8th.

The day will begin with breakfast served at 8 a.m. The opening event will be a Wing Ding. To register, simply call the pro shop at 894-8251 before Tuesday noon. Teams will be drawn according to handicaps; the shotgun tee-off is scheduled for 9 a.m.

Anyone having questions about opening day at Red Fox or joining the Men's Golf Association should call the pro shop. The full schedule of events for the entire 1992 men's golf season is also available at the pro shop.

According to Jim Gentry, Wednesday Event Chairman, there will be an interesting variety of events this year, with many more "mixers"; a great way for all members - new and old - to get better acquainted.

Home(s) For The Holidays

Or anytime of year. These Mill Spring properties come with acres of Christmas trees! So you can get in the tree farming business or just sit back and watch them grow.

Just move in. This well-kept rancher on 27.85 acres has 3 big bedrooms and 2 baths, a roomy LR, separate DR and kitchen. Full basement to boot. A third of the land is in Christmas trees, plus there are 2 streams and a good mountain view. $149,900.

Or for starters, try this on 16.33 acres. A neat little 3 BR/2 BA bungalow. Plus full basement with laundry. There are already several thousand Christmas trees established on this property, stream and bold mountain views, too. $87,500.
