

N.C. Homemakers Visit State Council

Touring Arizona on March 25 - April 2, were 46 members and guests of the N.C. Extension Homemakers Council.

They visited sister members of the Arizona Extension Homemakers Council in Phoenix, Tempe, Payson, Pine, Strawberry, Cottonwood, Prescott and Tucson.

They arrived by plane and toured Arizona by bus. They visited the Capitol, Heard Museum, Gammage Auditorium, Nelson Art Museum, Petrified Forest, Painted Desert, the Grand Canyon, Sedona, Jerome, Prescott, San Xavier Mission, and the Sonoran Desert Museum in Tucson. They also took a shopping trip to Nogales.

Arizonians touring the state with the N.C. guests were Sophia and Al Quihuis of Phoenix. Mrs. Quihuis is a Community Projects State Chairman of the Arizona Extension Homemakers Council and was the Tour Director. Tour Director from N.C. was Mrs. Helen Bess, Gastonia. She is very active in her state and is formerly National Citizenship Chairman of the National Extension Homemakers.
