Tryon Kitchens And Floors Acquires The Kitchen Place

Bill Ulrey, owner of Tryon Kitchens and Floors, recently announced the acquisition of The Kitchen Place, well known Tryon designer and installer of fine kitchen and other cabinetry for more than 15 years.

Jack Leon, former owner of The Kitchen Place, will continue to serve his clients out of the showroom of Tryon Kitchens and Floors at 337 North Trade Street, Tryon.

For the past five years, Tryon Kitchens and Floors has provided the greater Tryon community with high quality flooring and floor covering, including a wide selection of ceramic tile, both functional and designer.

"We're looking forward to being able to offer more comprehensive remodeling services, including design and a much broader selection of product lines," Bill Ulrey reports. "We're remodeling our showroom on North Trade Street to display our newly acquired cabinet lines which will include Wood-Mode, one of the nation's foremost cabinetmakers; some of the other cabinet lines include Omega, Les Care and Kemper.

Bill Ulrey reports, "When we complete our remodeling, we expect to have one of the most attractive showrooms in the area. Meanwhile, we're open for business as usual, please stop in to see the changes we're making."
