

Tryon Merchants Elect Officers

Local area merchants met Tuesday, March 31, to adopt a Constitution and By-Laws and elect officers for the newly organized Tryon Merchants Association.

Officers elected for the first year are Jennie Herold, The Book Shelf, President; Frank Sexton, Antiques on Trade, Vice-President; Norcen Lehner, The Farm House, Secretary/Treasurer. Also elected as members-at-large were, Bob Richardson of Blue Ridge Weavers and Nate Williams of the Village Restaurant.

The officers and the members-at-large will form an executive committee to conduct the business of the association between the general membership meetings which will be held quarterly.

Association members will receive written notice of the date and time for the general meetings and any special meetings called to discuss specific plans.

All interested Tryon area merchants are urged to contact any of the officers or members-at-large for additional information about joining the Association.

Plans for May Fest '92 scheduled for May 1, 1992 will be discussed at the association's special meeting at 5:30 on April 7, at the Village Restaurant. The May Fest promises to be a event for the entire community. Watch The Bulletin for further details.
