Lindsay Killough

Killough Is Cast As Older Sister

Lindsay Killough is cast as Margot Frank, older sister of Anne, in The Diary of Anne Frank, the play that Tryon Little Theater will present at Tryon Fine Arts Center April 30, May 1, 2, and 3.

In the play, Margot has a stabilizing influence on her family and friends while they are hiding from the Nazis in a tiny attic in Amsterdam during World War II. She is a placid, quiet, studious, sedate young girl, in marked contrast with Anne, who at times is volatile, exuberant, and stormy.

A native of Tryon and a sophomore at Tryon High, Lindsay is making her second appearance with TLT, having made her debut in Fiddler on the Roof in the role of Chava, the youngest of Tevye's three daughters. She will also be remembered for her portrayal of Patty, the smug goodie-goodie girl in Grease, the musical presented by Tryon Youth Center last summer. She also appeared in TYC's production of Peter Pan in 1988. An accomplished vocalist, she has sung with the Community Chorus for the last six years.

Watch for the announcement on the availability of mail order tickets.
