

Kiwanis Hawaii Travelogue Sunday

The Tryon Kiwanis Club will lead a journey to Hawaii in the next installment of its travelogue film series Sunday April 12 at 3 p.m. at the Tryon Fine Arts Center.

Film host John Holod began his interest in travel and film making at the age of 12. He is an internationally recognized photojournalist whose stories and photos have appeared in magazines and newspapers all over the world.

Come along with cinematographer John Holod as he portrays this ever-popular tourist destination in a new and different perspective. Here is an exciting side of Hawaii that tourists seldom experience in person. John has lived in the islands for six years and knows his subject intimately and lovingly. Now John rings his talents to Tryon in the Third of Four Kiwanis Travelogue presentations.

Let Hawaii - Wild and Beautiful show you an unforgettable Maui where you will watch a sunrise over Kaleakala Crater and marvel at real cowboys roping and riding, Hawaiian rodeo style.

On Lanai you will see the beautiful "Garden of the Gods" and the mysterious rock piles, and experience a rollicking four wheel drive adventure.

Molokai has an African Game Park, miles of unspoiled beaches, and the "Whistling Swan" to take you on an adventurous sailing odyssey with John at the helm.

Visit Oahu's exciting Honolulu, sparkling Waikiki Beach and enjoy snorkeling in Hanauma Bay, plus a journey to the Island's rugged outback at Waiahole and the scared falls at Kahuwaa.

The big island of Hawaii has Kona and Hilo, Mauna Loa and Mauna Kea, the Stairway to Heaven, Volcano National Park, and the Akaka Falls, Hawaii's highest waterfall.

Kauai, the Garden Isle is the location for the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific," Waimea Canyon, and the Na Pali sea cliffs, 4,000 feet above the pounding surf.

Single show tickets will be available 30 minutes prior to show time for $5 per person. For more information, call 859-9016.
