

Nikki Hulst

Featured In 'The Diary Of Anne Frank'

Nikki Hulst, who made her TLT debut in Fiddler on the Roof, playing the role of Rivka, one of the villagers, has the role of Miep in The Diary of Anne Frank, the play that Tryon Little Theater is presenting at Tryon Fine Arts Center Apr. 30, May 1, 2, and 3.

Miep is a courageous Gentile resident of Amsterdam, who at the peril of her own life, smuggles food and other necessities into the tiny attic where eight Jewish people are hiding out from the Nazis who are occupying the city during World War II.

Nikki, a high school sophomore, has also appeared in two Tryon Youth Center productions: Gypsy, and Peter Pan.

Active in extra-curricular activities, she is involved in the school Interact Club and won the Girl Scout Silver Award, as well as the Presidential Fitness Award. She enjoys swimming, tennis, hiking, water skiing, snow skiing, and soccer.

Although The Diary of Anne Frank is the chronicle by a teenage girl of two years of hiding from the Nazis, this is not a grim play. In fact, it is just the opposite. It is a gallant tale about the way eight cooped-up people behaved in their secret attic hideout, full of laughter at their quarrels, irritations, greed, and boredom, and full of inspiration at the story of their strength, courage, tenderness, love and forgiveness. The play is one of the great dramas of our time, one not to be missed.

Watch for the announcement on mail-order tickets.
