

Green Creek Flight Festival Schedule

The Green Creek Festival of Flight will be held on Saturday, April 11th from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the grounds of the Green Creek Elementary School on Coxe Rd.

From 10 a.m. until noon, there will be a kite-making workshop with Rick Watson, model airplane-building with John Trent, and paper airplane lessons from Becky Lewis.

Around noon hot dogs, cakes and cookies will be sold by the Boy Scouts of Troop 128, and three ultra-lights will begin circling the field, weather permitting.

Entertainment will start shortly after noon and continue until around 2 p.m. with Phil and Gaye Johnson, Lazyboy and the Recliners (Claude, Zeke and Jacob Graves) and other musicians performing.

Kite-flying will be encouraged throughout the day and the entertainment and workshops will move inside in the event of showers. The event is sponsored by the Green Creek Community Organization. It is free of charge and open to kite-enthusiasts and fun-lovers of all ages.

For more information, call Bo Attwood at 863-2900.
