

Tryon Daily Bulletin, Wed., Apr. 15, 1992
Happy Birthday Meeting Place

The Senior Center in Polk County is 18 years old this month. The Meeting Place has been given an appropriate name, for it is a meeting place for older Americans and the participants enjoy friendly fellowship. There's always a feeling of warmth and love amongst the people that come each day.

The Meeting Place enhances the quality of life of the older adults in Polk County through enrichment of each individual's emotional, physical, nutritional, spiritual and social well being.

The Meeting Place helps the older adult maintain the highest possible level of independence - seeks to preserve the dignity of the older adult and to encourage a better, healthier more loving way of living.

Programs of the Senior Center include: Congregate Dining 5 days per week; Home delivered meals for homebound handicapped or convalescing elderly; Daily: Ceramics, Bingo; Senior Fitness, Bridge, Tues. and Thurs.; B/P twice a month; Tax Assistance from January to April 15; legal services, by appointment; nutrition education - films, video; shopping trips, special programs, walking, and Medicare assistance.
