

Hats Off!

Here's the absolute end all, be all opportunity to show off the more unusual Easter Bonnet. The one with all the frills upon it.

It's time to put on your thinking cap and get ready for the parade of Mad Hatters at Saturday's 46th running of the Block House Steeplechase. The Hat Contest will be held at the paddock in front of the Judges Tower, 11:30 a.m. sharp.

In past years, judges have witnessed millinery expertise of staggering heights, including: three-tiered wedding cake arrangements, topped by stalion and mare, and a steeplechase course, to a complete banyard on the brim and colossal-sized Morris the Horse. A real bridle veil was another winner.

Judges say it helps, of course, to incorporate a horse into the headgear theme. Bonnets, bowlers, sombreros, Stetsons, Panama hats, pork-pies, top hats, and turbans are all game for decoration.

The contest is sponsored by Carole's Shoes and More, and the Fox Horn, Tryon.
