

New Computers For Special Education

The entire Special Education staff of Polk County Schools spent a day in March learning to generate instructional and behavioral objectives from seven Dell lap-top computers recently purchased for use in the schools. Leading the intensive training session at Stearns Education Center in Columbus were George Dhoriss, President of Learning Systems, Inc., and Terry McEntire, Director of Exceptional Children's Programs. Working with new "IEP Writer" software while Dhoriss looks on at right are, from left: Bo Attwood, Self-Contained Special Education teacher at Polk Central; Norma Mills, Preschool Handicapped teacher at the Jervey Palmer Building in Tryon; and Mallory Tedesco, Special Education teacher at Polk Central.

Exchange Students At Tryon High
