Anyone who missed Tryon Little Theater's presentation last weekend of The Diary of Anne Frank missed an example of community theater at its best. Congratulations to the exceptionally strong cast and director Donna Orzano.

What's happening:

If your child will be entering kindergarten next year in Polk County, the schools are offering a free get-acquainted program for your child. The "Rise and Shine" program will meet at the elementary schools from 9 to 10 a.m. on Mondays at Green Creek, Tuesdays at Mill Spring, Wednesdays at Saluda, Thursdays at Sunny View and Fridays at Tryon throughout the month of May.

After a short business meeting today at 2:30 p.m. at Isothermal Community College, the Polk

Godlock Wins First WNC Sports Award

Karen Godlock, Polk County's state champion middle distance runner, was recognized at the 34th annual WNC Sports Award Banquet at the Grove Park Inn Sunday.

Godlock won the Apple Tree Honda Award for a female minor sport athlete. Former Bulletin editor Seth Vining Jr. says Godlock is the first Polk County athlete to win one of the WNC Sports Banquet awards, although others have been nominated.

The Polk County girls track team was nominated this year for an award, but did not win.

The featured speaker at the banquet this year was Mary Wayte, an Olympic medalist swimmer at the 1984 and 1988 Summer Games who now serves as associate commissioner of the Southern Conference.

Cogdell Named LHS Scholar Athlete

Greg Cogdell, a senior at Landrum High School, was named the Scholar Athlete of the Week by WLOS-TV 13. The program is sponsored by WLOS and recognizes Carolina students who excel in both athletics and academics. Each student recipient films a short clip that is aired on the 6 and 11 p.m. news on Channel 13. Greg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cogdell of Landrum.

'Show Boat' Coming!

When Jerome Kern first approached Edna Ferber with his plan to turn her novel Show Boat into a musical, she was not only reluctant, she thought he was out of his mind. Only when he explained his idea of a new kind of musical theatre did she give Kern the musical comedy rights. Oscar Hammerstein was quickly convinced of the feasibility of Kern's plan and together they put together an artistic and box office triumph.

First presented in New York in 1929, the story of the "Cotton Blossom", plying the waters of the Mississippi, with Cap'n Andy, his lovely daughter, Magnolia, the fascinating gambler Gaylord Ravenal and

Lanier Library Annual Meeting

The Lanier Library traditionally invites the entire community to attend her annual meeting.

This year the date is Sunday, May 17 at 3 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center auditorium. Retiring president, Barbara Clement, will open the 102nd meeting welcoming visitors and library members, continuing with a brief business meeting. Three new board members will be elected and introduced to those present.

Following the business meeting, program chairman, Helen Stuart, will introduce Jean Pettigrew who will present Our Scottish Heritage. She will then unfold an array of Scottish Heritage, U.S.A. (sponsor of the Highland Games in Linville). Will there be a bit of the piping of the haggis, and whatever is the skein dubh? We hope to find out.

James Dall will demonstrate and explain Scottish attire: Flora McDonald Gammon will speak about Scottish culture. There will be singing by Mark Parsons, Scottish dancers and musicians to perform and a good time will be had by all. Wear your kilts, your tartans and anything else Scottish you can find.

Many people in the Tryon area have Scottish or Scottish-Irish ancestors. Whether or not you share this heritage you will enjoy the Lanier Library Annual Meeting at 3 p.m., May 17.
