Martin Actually Top Republican Finisher; Simple Typing Error

Jeannie Martin was the top vote getter among the Republicans with 785 votes, the Board of Elections determined Thursday morning.

The Board of Election's election night computer print out showed Martin finishing second with 695 votes, five votes less than John Edwards, who had 700, and six votes ahead of Jesse Foy, who finished third with 689.

However, the board determined Thursday morning that Martin finished first with 785 votes, 85 ahead of Edwards, and 96 ahead of Foy.

Elections supervisor Dale Edwards said she apparently mis-keyed Martin's vote total for Columbus precinct 8 as 91, when actually it was 181.

The error was caught when the Elections Board met to certify the results. No other errors were found, and there were no changes in the outcome.

The Bulletin correctly reported Martin as having won precinct 8, along with Columbus precinct 7 and all three Tryon precincts. However, the total vote counts reported contained the same error as that in the Board of Elections print out.

"We were in the elections office taking down the numbers as they were read out, and took down the correct number for precinct 8, from which we calculated the finishing order in

Camera Club To Judge Prints

The Carolina Camera Club will meet on Tuesday, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the Mural Room at the Tryon Fine Arts Center. Slides and prints will be judged and critiqued after which the main program will be presented by Lee Canfield titled Nature Trails '90.

He is highly regarded as an outstanding wildlife and nature photographer and we are most fortunate to have him as one of our members. He has traveled near and far to get his excellent photos.

Those interested in photography and guests are always welcome. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Midway Observes 52nd Homecoming

Midway Baptist Church on Hwy. 108, Columbus, will observe Homecoming Sunday, May 10th at 11 a.m.

Everyone is invited to come as the Rev. Tom Frady, a former pastor, returns to bring the message. Music will be presented by members and a covered dish luncheon will follow the worship services. Come join us in honor of the Lord.

Meet Monday

Mrs. Mary Sasser will be the guest speaker for the Polk County Unit of N.C. Retired School Personnel on Mon., May 11 at noon at Western Steer Steakhouse.

Mary Sasser, RN, C, FNP, a native of New York, received her registered nurse diploma from St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing in New York and a Bachelor of Science and Family Nurse Practitioner Certificate from George Washington University in Wash., D.C.

Mrs. Sasser comes to St. Luke's Hospital with over 10 years experience as a Family Nurse Practitioner in primary care, preceded by 20 years of nursing in hospital, industrial and environments.

She presently is the Director of Community Health Connections/Care Givers, which is an In-Home Aide Service affiliated with St. Luke's Hospital. This service, after three years of operation, presently serves 71 clients weekly with 86 well qualified certified nursing assistants.

She wants to share the information with local audiences that help can make a difference, even if it is as little as four hours per week.

The business session will include a report of the state convention and the election of officers.
