

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 3, 204 WALKER ST.
COLUMBUS, N C 28722

2nd Class Postage at Tryon, North Carolina 28782 and additional post offices. Postmaster: send address changes to The Tryon Daily Bulletin, P.O. Box 790, Tryon, N. C. 28782

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Founded Jan. 31, 1928 by Seth M. Vining
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Jeffrey A. Byrd, Editor and Publisher

The Tryon Daily Bulletin (USPS 643-360) is published daily except Sat. and Sun. for $35 per year by the Tryon Daily Bulletin, Inc. 106 N. Trade St., P.O. Box 790, Tryon, N.C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Phone 859-9151

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

32 Pages Today

Vol. 65 - No. 82

TRYON, N.C. 28782

WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1992

25c Per Copy

The holiday weekend weather: Friday, high 83, low 43, hum. 35 percent; Saturday, high 89, low 44, hum. 40 percent; Sunday, high 88, low 62, hum. 45 percent; Monday, high 83, low 64, hum. 55 percent, and by 7 a.m. Tuesday .10 inches of rain had fallen.

From time to time, other writers working for the Bulletin will offer their thoughts in the Curb Reporter column. What follows is a column written by Claire Wharton, who covers Polk County Schools:

Grumblings have been heard in the Tryon and Green Creek communities over recent and ongoing placement of Polk County Schools' teachers and administrators for the next school year.

Most of the letter-writing and phone-calling centers around choices, or non-choices, of school principals. The fact that only three principal positions have been announced hasn't limited the amount of speculation and public tongue-wagging over who ought to fill what position.

The only official action taken by the Polk County Board of Education has been to approve Gerald Eubanks as principal

(Continued On Back Page)

Hospital Recruits New Staff Surgeon

St. Luke's Hospital announces the addition of Martin J. Fischer, MD, a general and thoracic surgeon, to the hospital medical staff.

Dr. Fischer will be relocating to Tryon from Asheville where he was a medical staff member at both Memorial Mission and St. Joseph's hospitals. He plans to open his office in the St. Luke's Professional Building on Aug. 1, 1992.

"Recruitment of a surgeon and an internist has been a high priority for St. Luke's Hospital for several months," said Thomas Bradshaw, hospital president. "The addition of Dr. Fischer to our medical staff will complement our surgical expertise. We are pleased to have recruited someone with Dr. Fischer's skill and experience. We anticipate the addition of an internist in the near future."

Dr. Fischer, a native of Ohio, received his medical doctorate from Washington University. He completed a general surgery residency at Akron General Hospital in Ohio and a thoracic and cardiovascular surgery residency at Wayne State University in Michigan. Dr. Fischer is board certified by American Board of Surgery and the American Board of Thoracic Surgery.

"The recruitment of a surgeon to the medical staff is certainly key to us reaching our goals," said Brad Whitney, MD, chief

(Continued On Back Page)

Amanda Lynn Ligon

Inducted Into Gamma Beta Phi

Amanda Lynn Ligon, a junior at Appalachian State University was recently inducted into Gamma Beta Phi national honorary society. To be inducted a student must have attained a 3.25 grade point average leading to a bachelor's degree and be in the top 20 percent of the class.

Amanda is also a member of Beta, Beta, Beta, the university's biological honor society.

Amanda graduated from Polk Central and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ligon of Tryon.

-Community Reporter

The Lake Lanier Civic Association will hold its annual meeting June 7 at 4 p.m.

Wolverines Advance To Baseball Playoffs

Polk County pitcher Larry Fagan helped himself out with a homerun in the bottom of the sixth inning to tie the score with Rosman at 1 Thursday afternoon.

Shannon Randolph got the game winning hit in the bottom of the seventh. The 2-1 victory over Rosman advances the Wolverines to the first round of the state playoffs.

With the bases loaded in the top of the third inning, Larry Fagan walked in the first and only run for Rosman.

In the bottom of the sixth inning with two outs, Larry pounded one over the fence to tie the game at one.

Tommy Thomas doubled, Lenny Kirkendoll walked intentionally and Barry Foy was hit by a pitch to load the bases in the bottom of the seventh. The stage was set for Shannon Randolph and he came through with the game winning baschit to give the Wolverines a 2-1 victory.

Larry Fagan struck out thirteen and gave up only one hit in the pitcher's dual.

"We played tight but hung in there and good things happened to us," stated Coach Butch Hopkins. "We've had some key players hurt this season, John Maddox, Eric Lookadoo, Tommy Thomas and now Kelly Ruff, but the team came through in the clutch."

-Patty Aldred