The weather Wednesday, high 71, low 55, hum. 72 percent and 2.2 inches of rain; Thursday, high 76, low 62, hum. 60 percent, and by Friday at 7 a.m. another .43 inches of rain had fallen.

Polk County's proposed 1992-93 budget will go to public hearing tonight at 7:30 in the county courthouse.

One of the interesting questions regarding the budget is what happened to all the extra money which came through this year. Intangibles taxes were budgeted at $650,000 and came in at $980,000, a windfall of $330,000.

In addition, the county tax base was estimated at $595 million and actually came in at $610,000, producing another $90,750 in unexpected revenue.

So where is the money now? Most of it is headed into the county's "fund balance," that is the working capital the state requires counties to keep on hand in case of cash shortfalls.

The state requires at least an 8 percent fund balance, but in smaller counties they ask that a larger percentage of the total county budget be set aside in fund balance. Polk has in recent

Prayer Breakfast

The men of the Garrison Chapel Baptist Church will host their annual Prayer Breakfast on Sat., June 13, from 8 to 9 a.m. The speaker for the breakfast will be Stacey D. Mills of the Smith Chapel Baptist Church in Campobello, S.C.

Mr. Mills is a student at USC-Spartanburg where he is majoring in Elementary Education. He is active in many areas of campus life, including the Model United Nations, Upward Bound, and the USCS Gospel Choir.

Additionally, he serves as a Junior Deacon at the Smith Chapel Baptist Church and is active in the Sunday School and the Youth in Fellowship Choir. He works as the coordinator of the After School Tutorial Program at the Bethlehem Center in Spartanburg.

His topic will be "Men in Prayer Challenge and Overcome the World."

Tickets for the breakfast are $5 with all proceeds going to support the annual Men's Day program at Garrison Chapel. Tickets may be purchased from any of the men of the church, or you may make reservations by calling 859-6793 or 859-5706.

Lynn Homecoming

We would like to invite you to attend our annual homecoming services at Lynn First Baptist Church, on Sun., June 14.

John Crabbe will be speaking in the 11 a.m. service, followed by a covered dish meal at noon.

The Rev. Crabbe has worked with many churches in their youth programs. He has also been involved for several years in Bible camps for young people. He has visited Romania and Bulgaria on past mission trips and has recently returned from a trip to Romania, bringing fresh news of God's work there. He is an accomplished pianist.

The Rev. Crabbe will be teaming up with Paul Travis with some musical numbers in the afternoon, following our fellowship dinner. We will also enjoy music from several members of our congregation.

Please come and enjoy the preaching, food, and the music as we give recognition to former pastors, officers, and members, fellowshiping with those who have been away, and welcoming all our friends.
