The weather Friday, high 63, low 58, hum. 72 percent, precipitation .90 inches; Saturday, high 67, low 60, hum. 67 percent, precipitation .10 inches; Sunday, high 79, low 62, hum. 65 percent, precipitation .09 inches. Precipitation at 7 a.m. Monday was .88 inches.

If you thought a lot of rain fell last week, you're right. Robert Dedmond told us that between June 8 and yesterday, 5.43 inches of rain fell. Prior to June 8, 2.63 inches of rain had already fallen, bringing the total inches this month to date to 8.06.

"That's a lot of water," Dedmond commented. "But it looks like the sun will shine today," he said Monday.

Reports around the county of strange light in the sky Sunday proved to be the sun. We almost forgot what it looked like.

What's happening:

Sales associates of ERA-The Walker Agency and local community leaders today will spend an hour locked up at the Walker Agency in Columbus calling friends and co-workers for pledges to support the Muscular Dystrophy Assn. Donations may be made by call.

FENCE Flea Market

"We've filled one barn and nearly filled a second," reports Randy Grobe, chairman of the Fabulous FENCE Flea Market and Sale on June 27. "That means we have over thirty stalls of merchandise for customers to browse and enjoy. Although we have craftsmen, antique dealers and decorators coming from out of town, we welcome local people, too."

Among those who have sent in their stall reservations are John O'Connor of Landrum and Alice Auger who lives in Tryon. John O'Connor says, "We're bringing some nice rattan furniture and all sorts of things, a potpourri of artifacts and decorative items."

I make old fashioned jointed teddy bears," said Alice Auger, "and I'm bringing some beautiful angels made out of old quilt material with wings and everything." Alice says she may sweeten the deal if she can find time with some fancy baked goods. "I've got a new recipe I'm dying to try for Palm Beach brownies made with caramel!"

Stall applications are available at Carole's Shoes and at NationsBank in Tryon or you may pick one up at FENCE.

"Admission and parking are free and the sale begins at 8 a.m.," says Grobe. "It's gong to be a terrific sale. See you at FENCE on the 27th!"
