The weekend weather:
Friday, high 86, low 71, hum. 65 percent; Saturday, high 86, low 65, hum. 70 percent and .12 inches of rain fell; Sunday, high 90, low 63, hum. 55 percent and .2 inches of rain fell.

Polk County Sheriff's deputies were investigating yet another break-in in the Green Creek area Monday. The break-in, which occurred over the weekend at Jack Scruggs & Son store, was the sixth break-in in the Green Creek and Sandy Plains areas since last Tuesday.

Investigators were not available for comment Monday and no details on the latest break-in were available.

What's happening:

The Polk County High School Marching Band will hold its "Kick-Off '92" tonight at 7 p.m. at the Stearns Education Center. Band members, color guard members, parents and interested area residents are encouraged to attend.

A Ross Perot Wake will be held today from 5-7 p.m. at the Blue Grotto Pub. All petition volunteers and signers of the effort to have Ross Perot on the North Carolina presidential ballot in November are invited to come mourn over snacks and

Red Fox Sale Set To Close By August 5

The high bidder for Red Fox Country Club signed a contract Friday.

The buyer, who still wishes to remain unidentified, submitted the high bid for the property on July 3. The bidders were informed of the outcome July 10.

Last Friday, the high bidder signed a purchase contract and gave an earnest money deposit. The contract calls for a 10-day inspection period, which began Friday. Closing will take place on or before Wednesday, August 5 in Asheville.

The contract also sets out an agreement as to remedies should the buyer find defects in the property.

Alan Fleming works with Hatfield Phillips in Atlanta, the firm which is handling the sale for the federal savings and loan bailout organization, the Resolution Trust Corp.

He said he could not identify the buyer because "he wants to talk to Red Fox residents first, before making an announcement."

Fleming said the buyer could still back out of the deal if he had sufficient reasons under the contract. If he were to back out, the second highest bidder would then have the opportunity to purchase the property.

Fleming would not name the
