The Polk County Board of Commissioners are taking their bi-monthly show on the road starting Monday. The commissioners will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Saluda Town Hall. The board wanted to move its meetings around so that citizens in other areas who may have been reluctant to travel to Columbus to see their county board in action will have every opportunity.

What's happening:

Internationally known pianist Scott Watkins will be in concert Friday night at 8 at the Tryon Fine Arts Center in a benefit performance for Steps to Hope. Tickets are on sale at Kelly's Gift Shop and The Flower Cottage in Columbus, Nations-Bank and Tryon Federal Savings and Loan in Tryon and Columbus; The Bookshelf, Cowan's and The Tryon Daily Bulletin in Tryon.

All who are interested in cross country in Polk County, please meet at Tryon Middle School (at Harmon Field) August 3 at 7 p.m.

TMGA Events Are Burgeoning

Despite large numbers of members being off on vacation, (how can people go off on vacation from La La Land? - this is the place where people "come to" for vacation), nearly 50 golfers participated in Monday's TMGA "Drawn-Twosomes, Best Ball," format at the Tryon Country Club.

Eighteen Hole Winners, at a remarkable 63, were Bob Hastings and John Grames. After a Pettit "Voodoo System card match," Bob Widdicombe and John McNichol placed second with their 65. Nine Hole Winners were Glenn Webb and Bill Hart with 32, followed by Bob Gibbs and Bob Wishmeier, with 33. The growing popularity of the Golf Committee's imaginative formats attest to their success. And "The Boys of Monday" continue to grow in numbers.

Sign up, or call at Cecil's Pro Shop before Thursday at 4 p.m. for next Monday's event, Individual-Full Handicap.

An astonishing 70 appeared for the First-Ever Sundowner social hour at TCC's venerable log Clubhouse 19th-Hole Monday evening. Skip and Penny Morse set a standard of excellence for the affair that the Social Committee will find difficult to out-do in the future.

"This is exactly what we envisioned when we started TMGA," said Ralph Pfeiffer, "It is apparent that getting together
