Benefit Show For TLT Aug. 21

Don't miss the benefit show for Tryon Little Theater that is to be presented for one night only, August 21, at the Fine Arts Center. It promises to be a kaleidoscope of entertainment with dance, comedy and music acts galore. Christine Fitch is directing the show, which she describes as "a maniacal medley of music, merriment and mayhem."

Missy Fincher is choreographing a Jazz Dancers ensemble, including Dolly Brooke-Hix, Emma Hix, Heather Rogers, and Sarah Hyder.
Solo dances also will be performed by Mason Trent and Paula Brown.

Calvin Foster will entertain with jazz music on the piano, and Mary Lou Burch and Jacqueline Poluianchik will be featured in piano duets.

Singing, too, will be prominent in the production, with Patti Peake, Lelanie Fisher, Don and Pam McMahan, Stephen and Christine Fitch, Helen Byrd and Lindsay Killough on stage at length.

Comedy skits will be provided by Christine Fitch, Stephen Fitch, Ron Mosseller,
Dean Campbell, Liz Norstrom, Ronnie Campbell, Donna Christopher, Ray Ingham and Joe Wray.

With such well known, high-powered and popular performers, Midsummer Madness can't

Pet Goat At Summer Social

There'll be more than people at the Fine Arts Center's Summer Social on Saturday. Making her first public appearance will be Emma, a three month old French Alpine dairy goat. White with brown markings, little Miss Emma looks very much like a gazelle, says her owner. "We take walks on horse trails and she follows my just like a dog. We'll be there Saturday at 11:30 so Emma can enjoy the festivities."

Classic Video At P.C. Library

The film classic *20,000
Leagues Under the Sea* starring Kirk Douglas, Paul Lukas, and Peter Lorre will be shown at Polk County Public Library Saturday, Aug. 10. The full length presentation will begin at 10 and will run until approximately 12:15.

Children over 5 years and adults are invited to view this Academy Award winning adaptation of Jules Verne's thrilling novel. Free admission.

Books on underwater exploration and sea life will be displayed.
