TERMS INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

Not from the snow-drift May awakes

Spring's whole bright retinue it takes

And blossoms bloom and fade withal

The farmer needs must sow and till.

And wait the wheaten bread :

Before the bread is bread,

But, spite of all the din,

It is the patient holding out.

That makes the winner win.

Make this your motto then, at start,

Twill help to smooth the way,

"Rongo wasn't built in a day!"

she still remains, like Holmes's aunt,-

On her ancestral tree."

credible celerity and ease.

but how can I, inside of a balloon?

"Behold the woman who dares!"

look mean and skimpy now?

ised to join us at dinner on Thursday.

Extremes should meet, " she said.

who carns a good living, and ought to lay especially as four of them are girls. Mrs. T.

you can judge what that implies."

And steady up both hand and heart,

LOU'S BALLOON.

I was sitting quietly in my room one morn-

" The sole ungathered rose

Then cradle, thrash and go to mill,

Swift heels may get the early shout,

Laurence of the

In purples, reds and greens;

To make her queen of queens.

Upon the orchard rain must fall,

And soak from root to root :

Before the fruit is fruit.

Ending of a Remarkable Lawsuit.

The Warrenton Gazette.

The simple announcement of a finith or marriage will be inserted for 25 cents, in advance.

Items of Interest."

How to put a horse " on his mettle"

Duboque is said to be the best-drained city in the United states. Bill Shanks save that courtship is has, but matrimony is Mister,

The tools are to be removed from the oridges over the Thames at London. Eik City, Kan., offers 840,000 in bonds to the first railroad that reaches the

. Rulroads have now three gauges a broad gauge, a narrow gauge, and a Prince Haman, eldest son of the Khedive of Egypt, who has finished his Oxford career, will soon depart on a three years' tour around the world.

many old habitues. The royal degree forbudding further gambling was read on the 29th of September. Strange to say, Louis Napoleon desiries

The gilded cambling saloons at Emit are closed, to the great indignation of

The Duke of Bedford has given Mr.

Bochm an order for a statue of John Bunyan, to be presented to the town in whose jail the " Pilgrim's Progress? was written during its author's thirteen "Poor Carlotta," the ex-Empress of Mexico, is reported to possess a fortune of $5,000,000, which will be inherited by her brothers, the King of Belgiam and city in the country, none was better farmer has flourished nearly as well in rivalry between the two stars creates a able to bear it than Boston, and particu | the practice of doing what his neighbors | pleasant excitement. They do not come larly the section destroyed, which in did, but doing it first. He was the leader into immediate collision, although vying cluded, in a business point of view, the of fashion in agriculture, and was always with each other in favorite roles on alter-By an agreement between the two

Colonel Titus C. Rice, a recluse who had been living on an old bargent Fortress Monroe since the war, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. Some twenty years ago he was a prominent citizen of Richmond, Va., and colonel of the famous "Black Horse

The father of a boy whose vericity is not so marked as his back, asked the teacher why it was his son didn't mave a better acquaintance with figures, and was considerably electrified when the tencher tenderly observed, "I really don't know, unless it is because figures won't lie. ?

Mr. Cornell continues to lavish money ipon his university. He has commenced the building of an extra workshop for the purpose of supplying the manuallabor students with increased means of earning a support. It will be provided France, so many desertions have followed with machinery and an expert foreman

A smart lad in San Antonia, Texas, recently took his stand by the side of a happy. The fatigues of mule-riding would blind organ-grinder, and, hat in hand, thoughts were diverted by the continuous filled by the sympathetic passess by, he panorama we were passing. The proprie- walked off, leaving the organist grinding tor of the Hotel d'Angleterre met us most away, utterly ignorant of the whole

The Prussian Government has decided that the dames au Sacre Cour de Dien, an Order imployed chiefly in the relig-a valley where man had not yet brought the members are consequently to be expelled forthwith.

When a man thinks that nobody cares for him, and that he is alone in a cold and selfish world, he would do well to ask himself what he has done to make anybody care for and love him, and to warm the world wifli faith and generousty. Generally those who complain the most have done the least. It is said that the Mikado of Japan is labor of the journey was forgotten in the going to England to look for a wife. The but wonder with David in the midst of all about five feet ten inches high, of digniabout us, what was man that God should fied bearing, slightly built, of darker complexion than the majority of higher-It seemed as if the sun were loth to class Japanese, with a thin, composed part with the world, and had allowed his face, somewhat Mongolian in cast, full snows that capped the summits, which, The rapid increase in value of real changing from gold to rose color, made estate in New York, is shown in the one vast illumination of beauty; and fact that Fifth avenue lots, near Central lingered none the less entranced, remem- now command from $60,000 td $75,000; bering what had been there, and with The cross streets between Fifth and

The new King of Sweden went once incognito with a friend to Malmo. The two were robbed of all the money Success in Life. - Olive Logan, in A New Invention. - Necessity is the they had, and, in consequence, were un-

while any dust that might be raised workings, there are now being obtained amount of pleasure and comfort upon value by being very antime

Rome Wasn' Built in a. Day. ruffles, quills and frills, till there's scarce an who approves of simplicity and economy deinch of untrimmed space about her. And vote himself to the plainest-dressed girl in The boy who does a stroke and stops Clara and Nellie go by to school every morn- the room, turning a gold shoulder on those Will never a great man be; Tis the aggregate of single drops. That makes the sea the sea.

The mountain was not atrits birth "Isn't she a darling?" I cried. A mountain, so to speak ;

The little atoms of sand and earth ple-blossom cheeks; but wouldn't she be Have made its peak a peak. just as pretty in a plain white dress with a bit of edging round the neck and sleeves, if men, and a vital change in manners and Not all at once the morning streams it were the fashion? And the pretty Gracie morals would soon follow." The gold above the gray ; -ls the charm in her, her lovely complexion Tis a thousand little yellow gleams That make the day the day.

simply dressed."

night. No wonder she looks broken down, and has neuralgia and a diseased spine. She binding, gathering and fastening, passes through her fingers, to say nothing of the contriving and fitting, and basting and ripping. I wonder the woman is alive. I don't worked. "But why don't the daughters help her?" practising and pic-nicing, croquetting and coquetting, it would be cruel to expect her to placency in our little plan do more than make the plainest portion of her under-clothes." wife to go into such extravagance." be expected to be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A reform must begin somewhere else, I fancy."

ing when a note from my old friend, Lou Livermore, was brought in. I was very fond of Lou, as, indeed, all her friends are; though and capabilities."

"Yes; they may as well begin a reform here, as of the nation at the ballot-box," I the balloon did it! She lives far up in the country, but occa- said, laughing. "But how to do it is the signally comes to Boston on a visit. Her, question. Is there any standard by which

Why, my new dress; and such a dress! dressed, and another to be fashionably It will give you fits to see how my back is dressed.

butched up and puffed out. I'm a regular "Yes," I said; "but what is it to be well balloon; a fashion-plate; a anything that is dressed?"

for example; only they, poor things! were born with humps on their backs, and I wasn't. "Sile's very stylish," quoth the tempter. Little wrecked I in my ignorance what that looking dress pattern under my arm. I had ing personage, of whom I stood in moral the next; she wouldn't tilt us up on heels clerk, preparing to add an S to the end of that agonize our toes, and pitch us down stairs George Washington Botts' name. I went in slim; I came out stout; I went in to-day, and to-morrow sec us on the ground with just enough to pay my fare home on the street-car,—the collapse having been trans-"That would be comfort," I said. "If ferred from my person to my purse with inlessen half our labors."

Verily stashion "doth make cowards of us all;" yea, and puff-balls also! I wish I had the courage to go through the world in a gored gown without a pinch or puff or pucker on it ; but I haven't ; so I am a balloon, that by some incomprehensible machinery is raised into mountainous ridges. Surmounting these ridges, at right angles to my body-if there be a body inside this corrugated globe, of which I am in Perious doubt, to say nothing of an immortal soul-projects a fan-shaped,

Hester went away. ask you, what am I to do? Go round the of fun of herself. When Hester Graywood world in this harlequin guise, or give the whole thing a great smash! I should became in, wearing her untrimmed gray silk, she made a low obeisance.

I might go up, you know Till then, in every fibre of my stiffening. Yours truly, THE GREAT EXPANDED. I sat laughing over this; when in walked and a sacque just bound with a bias fold of self? How in the world did you manage, the same. Yes, she had dared. It was really Hester, to get a sensible dress made?"

a refreshing sight; and she looked perfectly bewitching in the quaker-like costume. But, "Just by my horribly obstinate temper," said Hester, laughing. * " First I had a pitched then, Hester Graywood is such a pretty little creature, she can't help looking lovely in battle with Mrs. Cuttit, and came off victorious; then I ran the gantlet of her twenty anything; and she knows it, so it does not require so great courage in her to dare. Yes, sewing-girls, who opened all their forty eyes in holy terror at the trying on."

such plain, single skirts, and considered ourselves elegantly dressed; why should they I read Lou's note to Hester, and she promout just alike. like so many ninepins." Shelstayed on awhile, and we had a little "Well, what is to be done about it?" talk on dress, and the bondage fashion im-

"Why not form an anti-fashion society." corrupted by the overloaded, ungraceful styles said Hester, "and get all sensible women to in vogue now, and on many other things, pledge themselves to dress according to their out you will always be poor. The art is and, trying the upper drawer thereof, such as sensible women do talk about when own ideas of propriety, without regard to their continuous in the continuous interest in the continuous in the continuous interest in the con is an ambitious woman, and says she will have her children 'decently dressed;' that and what wonderful costumes she does bloom | for the evil," said Hester.

ing, each with another set of furbelowed who wear diamonds and such like sinful been for some time pending in the upper skirts and under skirts, basques and things, and he will do more to effect a reforsacks, while baby Belle-bless her dear little mation than by years of preaching. Girls heart !- is all affoat, too, with tiny ruffles on like to please nice young men, and no harm done either, just as young men like to please nice young girls. The influence is mutual "Yes, lovely, with her blue eyes and ap- and wholesome. Let young men frown en extravagantly-dressed young women, and

ARRENTON

'At this point in our discussion I heard Prof. Downing, an old friend of his, whom agreeable, and a bachelor. Now, Tom and

Moreover, knowing his refined, almost thing to suit his fastidious taste. How lucky

The dinner passed off delightfully. Tom was in his most hospitable mood ; Lou and the soups, salmon, and roast lamb, all being done to a turn, the hostess serene. The influences; and Tom and I had great com-A few days after, Tom told me he had been drawing the professor out a little on our

"He said this: 'Miss Graywood is certainly quite pretty; but what a pity it is she doesn't dress better! Your friend, Miss Liv-"I suppose so, ' I said with a sigh; but ermore sets her a good example there.

"The horrid man! and he pretending to have classic tastes!" I cried. And (will you had a spark of independence. Here is a tan- believe it?) Tom and I are now both quite gible evil for them to grapple with, now that sure that the professor who detests fashion and frippery, who admires only "chaste designs" and "classic outlines," is actually in love with Lou. And the balloen did it ! yes,

Oh, the consistency of men!

Wanted to Arrive.

A seedy-looking individual walked into the Crawford House in Cleveland, a few evenings ago, and stepping up to the register, seized the pen and registered his name at the foot of the long list of the day's arrivals. It was a noble name-George Washington Botts-written in a firm, bold hand, and with a big flourish underneath. It was plain that the seedy man was accustomed to making a flourish

"Have a room?" inquired the clerk, in-"No," said seedy shortly, picking his teeth with a splinter toothpick he had selected from the well assorted supply pocket handkerchief. The clerk, always stituted suit for divorce. ready to do a good action, generously allowed the unfortunate individual to argloomily forth into darkness and the

The Old Soldier.

He holds it up and says, "What will The person asked must not use the words, white, black, yes or no, in her Finally we got a little quieted; though answer. If she does she must pay a for-

Frank holds up his "old soldier" and asks, Susie, "What wil you give this Susie replies, "A watch."

needs a coat." "I could not give him that." avoids "no.") "What will you give him then; a

" I think I will." each player, Frank passes on lo Louisa, having failed to make Susan pay a for-

"Louisa, what will you give my soldier ?" "A pair of mittens."

"What color shall they be?" "Gray." "Gray mittens! O, do give him black ones."

"No, I cannot." "A forfeit, Louisa, please, you said nothing left for the

"A certain judge was visiting a friend's family when the death of an infant child occurred. The bereaved parents requested the judge to watch by the quested the judge to watch by the Thus the game goes round the circle.

BE ECONOMICAL.—"Take care of the pennies." Look well to your spending. Took well to your spending. No matter what comes in, if more goes to looking around, he saw a bureau.

Thus the game goes round the circle. The consented and of course have, "said she, "in Philadelphia a man announced that a new engine for presented the judge have," said she, "in Philadelphia a man announced that a new engine for presented the judge have," said she, "in Philadelphia a man because the living embodiment of some of the principles of my lecture. At eighteen he had a fixed purpose in life, so, looking around, he saw a bureau.

The Empress Josephine was very fond of perfumes, and above all, musk. Here is to be a support of the principles of my lecture. At eighteen he had a fixed purpose in life, stoye, and which does not intrude upon dressing-room in Malmaison was filled. quested the judge to watch by the remains of the departed, and of course remains of the departed. Their merriment at this treatment at this treatment at the property of the departed and of course remains of the departed. Their merriment at this treatment at this treatment at the property of the departed and of course remains of the departed. No matter what comes in, if more goes so, looking around, he saw a bureau, occupying an obscure position in a news-

Unfortunate cattle owners on the never mind the looks of fool may make money, but it needs to spend that a letter has been written to Matam
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the that a letter has been written to Matam
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the that a letter has been written to Matam
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Berlin says the down can be left open in pleasant weath
The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Boundary Case.

The san Juan Boundary Case.—A more than the special despatch from Boundary Case.

The san Juan Bou 'd two oros by President Lerdo and the Mexiliam referred the San Juan boundary er, without the annoyance of smoke of Laurium, stretching from Senium to . If can Foreign Minister, stating that the case, in their report to His Majesty, recs Frontier Commission will strictly inves- ommended as a compromise of the distigate complaints as to cattle sterling, pute the middle channel as the bounds and that the Mexican Government will line between British and American amount of pleasure and comfort upon value by being very antimor aid that of the United States in putting ritory. The reports of the expert an end to all disturbances.

Effects of the Boston Calamity on Business affairs.

brought to a termination a day or two ago by the agreement of the parties to the sun to a compromise. * Some years ago a German gentleman named Gustavus Schurman resided in Louisville. He was the possessor of a in good style, drove fine horses, sported a footman in livery, and claimed to be a German nobleman. He was married to a German young lady, had a young and interesting family, and to all appearances was prosperous and happy. But as in so many families, there was a ghost in this one the secret of whose existence did not come to light until the death of Gustavus was a resident of Aix la-Chapelle, a little city in Rhenish Prussia, pursued the business of cloth manufacturer, and was what might be considered well off, his real and personal estate being worth about $100,000. He loved, or thought he loved a lady named Amelia Eberhardine Goll, daughter of one of the royal counselors, and in 1845 he proposed marriage, was accepted, and the marriage ceremony was performed in that year. An ante-nuptial contract was entered into between the two, according to the code Napoleon, which was in force at Aix-la-Chapelle, by which in case of the death of the husband before the wife, she became entitled to oneeighth in fee simple of his entire estate. "And what did he say at Hoster?" I asked and one-fourth of the estate during her life time, besides having a community of interest in all acquisitions to the common fund after marriage, which community of interest would entitle her to

The two lived happily together for some time, or apparently so. The life of the wife, however, was soon rendered wretched by the discovery that another had supplanted her in her husband's affections. This however, was not exactly the case; it was she in reality, who had taken the place which nature had Rhenish province in which he lived held over him a terror of proscription which prevented him from doing that which his heart prompted. He loved Catherine Bengels and his love was returned, but he married Amelia E. Goll, who brought to him a proud usme and an extensive dower. But for the crime which Schur-

His married life was unhappy, while his love for the lowly Catharine Bengels became more intense, now that it was impossible for them to be legally united. They met clandestinely, and the intercourse coming to the knowledge of the unhappy wife, she became depressed beyond masure, upbraid ed her husband "No, Sir, no supper," said Mr. Botts, with his perfidy, and threatened divorce. with severity; "I simply want to arrive. This rendered the husband desperate, A-r ar, r-i-v-e rive, arrive. I want neither and, openly avowing his attachment, room, supper nor anything else, but I took Catherine Bengels into his domiparticularly desire to arrive. It is a long cile. Becoming discontented with this the great conflagration, a letter-writer time since I have arrived at a hotel—a condition of things, Schurman decided describes a terrible scene which took very long time" (his voice choked a little), upon emigrating to America, and came place at the furnishing store of Hickman, "and I thought, if you hadn't any object to this country. He returned in 1849, on Washington street, where the walls tion, I-I would like to arrive once more and gathering together what property he had been wrapt in a deadly embrace by rive, and George Washington Botts, took up his residence, and sued for a di- cries of anguish which they suffered property to his American heirs

"Please don't give that; my soldier the city were employed to prosecute the another crashing fall of the wall. A As only three questions can be asked Being in a foreign country, and copies Water street, and an employe went into sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

A Cerrse Mislaid. - A Boston correspondent vouches for the following : they get together.

'One of the greatest evils of this absurd overloading.' said Hester, 'is that it so featually overworks women. We hear a great deal about the hardships of the poor shirt, makers in our cities; and they are to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied, I know. But there are other women to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to be pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my to the pitied too. Look, for example, at my too the potied too. Look, for example, at my too the pitied too the dead, when they are many, make great waste. Hair by hair, heads get bald; staw by the key are many, make great waste. When they are many, make great waste. Hair by hair, heads get bald; staw by the key are many, make great waste. It is consumed, the dead the dead baby in a drawer, looked it, took out the lest of the key are many, make great waste. It is consumed, the the target of fuel is accomplished, the fashion? / Union is strength, and organized Little expenses, like mice in a barn, effort the order of the day."

Little expenses, like mice in a barn, locked. He accordingly placed the dead when they are many, make great waste. baby in a drawer, locked it, took out this establishment. It was regarded as of fuel is accomplished, the smoke itself ed since her death, and the present own-not yet been published.

The N. Y. Ecraing Post — good authority in financial and commercial gives expression to some very sensible courts of Kentucky and Indians, was affairs -- says :

the sad news of the Boston conflagration reached us on Sunday, so that a day's reflection could intervene before business began. Had the blow come more suddenly, a disastrous and widespread surface having elevated and and dry suddenly, a disastrous and widespread panic might have followed immediately. As it is, business men have had time to recover their presence of mind and to a considerate survey of the situation—in a word, time has been given for the exercise of their reason. The losses by the fire cannot fail to be large, but we believe that they have been greatly exaggerated by the sensational part of the press. An attempt has also been made to draw a parallel between this fire and the Chicago fire, but the circum—and the Chicago fire, but the circum—equally senseless are made by not a few man and the chicago fire, but the circum—equally senseless are made by not a few man and the chicago fire, but the circum—equally senseless are made by not a few man and the chicago fire, but the circum—equally senseless are made by not a few man and the chicago fire, but the circum—equally senseless are made by not a few man and the chicago fire and widespread in the constant of the constan most heavily on Boston itself and on a philosopher. The neighbors are still the Count of Flanders. Her fortune New England, in the latter on the plodding and grumbling. The philoso- was inherited from Leopold I. of Belmanufacturing districts and on cities pher has added farm to farm, owns his gium. identified with insurance interests. If thousands in bank stock, and finds no Patti and Nilsson are now singing in rather from the foreign markets than sides. restore confidence and steadiness to the Loss of Life at the Beston Fire.

Hundreds of persons were injured, could, departed in 1850 for the United the flames, and had become weak and Here he was compelled to hide his emo- States, in company with Catharine Ben- tottering through the intense heat. At tions in his coat tail, in the absence of a gels. Before his departure, his wife in- length they fell, and three men were On the arrival of Schurman in Amer- heavy fragments of brick and stone. ica he proceeded to Louisville, where he The terrible physical agony of their granted when he immediately married but at first no one advanced to their Gustavus Schurman purchased real three men crossed the street to where estate in Indianapolis and Louisville, and a portion of the wall was still overhangby his tact and business management in- ing the spot where the poor victims were creased his wealth to over a million of begging and shricking for help, and The players are seated in a circle; one dollars. At the time of his death he had tried by the utmost exertion of main walks round holding a pen, pencil or seven children, two by his first wife and strength to pull and wrench them out of anything he pleases to use, representing five by his second wife. In making his the horrible vice, but these efforts only will he left his Prussian property to his made greater their suffering, and the two German heis and his American bricks and other debris were still falling The first wife Amelia, learning of the ed the perilous and fruitless risk and death of her husband, obtained posses- retreated from the dangerous spot, and sion by legal process of the Prussian shortly afterwards, in frightful paroxyestate, and sued for her share, as per isms of pain and with cries that will marriage contract, of the descendants' ring in the ears of many of the spectators estate in America. Her son, Gustavus to their dying day, the crushed masses F. Schurman, represented her with pow- of humanity gave up the breath of life er of attorney, and the ablest lawyers in and were a moment afterwards buried by case. The pleadings were voluminous fireman named Martin Spencer, belongand as a vast amount of property was in- ing to the Medford force, was injured by volved, great interest was manifested in the toppling over of another wall on the result. It apeared, however, that Summer street, with a serious cut in the as the case progressed the plaintiff weak- head. Mr. Daniel McClellan, of the ened somewhat in enforcing her claims. firm of Charles Crosby & Co., No 46 of proceedings in foreign courts being the building when it was blown up. frequently rendered necessary as testi- Strange to relate, Mr. McClellan escaped came wearied and finally agreed to a the natural shock to his nervous system compromise, in lieu of all claims, for the consequent upon such an experience. extent of his injuries are unknown.

Circumstaness Alter

The Valley of Chamounix.

Our ride of thirty miles was nearly buy an extra amount of bonds; in a ended, writes a correspondent, and we word, will give relief to the money were entering the Valley of Chamounix. man had committed against his nature trouble, which, however, can be averted bells around the neeks of the cattle. We market if necessary. If we are to have We were greeted here by the tinkling of by wise and firm action, it is the opinion had heard that music for some time, but of cool heads that the trouble will come now there was a pastoral melody upon all from the Boston fire. There are good It is said that the finest herds are proreasons, however, to believe that every vided with a harmonious set of bells, means will be used by the Troasury to which produce a tune as the cattle walk home at milking-time, resembling the air of the national Swiss anthem, and that this tune so powerfully excites the feelings of the Swiss heart in a strange land that it is forbidden, upon pain of death, to be played in the Swiss regiments serving the awakening of home longings in the as teacher.

hearts of those who have heard it. We entered Chamounix tired but very have been noticed sooner but that our solicited alms. When his hat was nearly pleasantly, and we were taken at once to transaction. our rooms, and soon after met again at . The gay appearance of the dining-hall would make you sooner think you were jour instruction of Catholic girls and in some fachionable circle in London or children, is to be considered as akin to Paris than at the foot of Mont Blanc, in the Jesuit Order under the late act, and the iron horse or electric spark. The sight of laces and diamonds, drawing-room airs and all the paraphernalia of the city took of the keeness of Alpine ramblings. After dinner we walked upon the terrace to look over the glaciers and snow-fields of Mont Blanc.

One could hardly belp recalling his idea of the appearance of Mt. Sinai, as it was filled with the glory of God, for the setting sun had glorified everything. The excitement of our emotions, and we could young emperor is tall for an Asiatic, be so mindful of him.

olors to rest most lovingly upon the lips, and dark eyes. when night cast a vail over the whole, we Park that sold for $20,000 five years ago, something, perhaps, of the feeling we have Sixth avenues have not been behind. mony in the American courts, she be- with only a blackened countenance and when we must hide from our eyes what One gentleman, who five years since has given us a sweet joy upon earth. paid $10,000 for a lot, this season gave After planning to ascend the Montanvert 835,000 for the adjoining one. to cross the Mer de Glace, the following day, we bade each other good night.

said I.

"Easy enough to do that," said Lou; When you mean to save, begin with wornout mothers; benkrupted fathers, neglected babies, disgusted husbands"—

"Hold there!" I cried. "Husbands are as fend of dress as wives, so far as my experience goes."

"Why do they keep up such an everlasting of the keep up such an everlasting to counsel the though deal the outle when a strong as if the bothe when in attendance, and deeply engaged listen.

George W. Childs, of the Ledger.

Success may not bring happiness, but at the tough deal the word when a strong as if the bothe when ing to counsel listen.

The tap leaks but a drop a minute.

When you a THE SAN JUAN BOUNDARY CASE.—A five miles an hour. The engine is placed are some veins of argentiferous galens or cinders, as there is none of either, Athens. From the remains of the ancient

ve been most satisfactor

It is fortunate, at least so far as special conditions in agriculture. That the sad news of the Boston conflagration and the Chicago fire, but the circum- equally senseless are made by not a few stances, at least so far as they bear farmers, and are persevered in from year on business, are very different. Chicago to year. Again, one would suppose that owed nearly everything to the East, the when an intelligent farmer saw all his debts being, in part, ordinary mercantile neighbors and everybody else's neighobligations and in part in the share of borsturning exclusive attention to pork has asked the German Government if real estate mortgages. In fact Chicago raising, that it would be a good time for he might do so. He was answered that was originally built up on eastern capi- him to raise corn, meanwhile omitting his presence there would be unwelcome. tal, and its business was in a large nothing essential to steady and uniform measure conducted on Eastern credits. success. But observation proves that It has been rebuilt, to a large extent, by such men are rare, and the result is that eastern and English, or Canadian capi- very soon everybody has more hogs than tal. Boston, on the other hand, while his own crops will supply, and corn has old and rich, is a creditor city both gone up quite beyond reach for profitable in current business and in investment feeding. Dr. Hoyt says he once knew a years imprisonment. operations. The losses, if we exclude farmer in Ohio who started out under those by the shareholders of insurance the guidance of the rule always to do companies in the Middle States and the just what his neighbors pretty generally foreign insurance companies, will fall did not do. He was not far from being such a calamity had to overtake any difficulty in keeping his temper. Another opera at St. Petersburg, and the friendly wealthiest and most solid part of the ready to discard the model he had given nate mights. city. A good share of the real estate in about the time the majority adopted it. the burnt district is owned by wealthy During the late low prices of wool, when estates as an investment; and perhaps so many sheep-men became disgusted, will be considered as equivalent to asigned to another. Schurman had in no like amount of property in the and either slaughtered their flocks or seventy-five cents in United States coin his employ a number of factory girls, one United States was so free of incum- sold them out of the State at a sacrifice, of gold value. A remembrance of this of whom, Catherine Bengels, was pos-brance. The principal disturbance, in one large wool-grower persevered, and will be useful in the interchange of sessed of more than ordinary beauty. a legitimate way, which our market for when the dejected wool-growing interest money orders between the United The impressible young bachelor, was securities here will feel, will be caused began to look up a little he was ready to States and the German empire. by sales of the securities of insurance take advantage of the rise, while others companies ; and these sales, as has been were buying back new flocks at a second demonstrated in the past, will extend sacrifice. over a considerable space of time. A good part of these securities are government bonds, and it has been intimated that the Treasury will, in case of need, ## markets, and that the worst is past.

buried up to the shoulders among the succor. After a few enoments two or at every moment. The men relinguish The employe also got away, but the

be-fringed, be-puckered basque, looking, for strange how it ever came about that we let hastily drying his eyes with a pen wiper, vorce from his wife Amelia, which was filled the frightened crowd with horror, all the world, like a spread turkey-tail. On the top of this projection a good-sized trunk same shaped garments, no matter how dif- heartfelt gratitude, and then stalked the woman who had cloped with him. could be comfortably seated; only it might fall in! I wonder if a pappoose couldn't be inserted somewhere: I do so long to blend "Very strange and absurd," I said; and night. the useful with the ornamental! Now, Hepsibah, you are a sensible married Exactly at one o'clock on Thursday the oman, competent to give good advice; and Great Expanded arrived. She was a good

glad to preserve a modicum of self-respect; "I do thee homage, thou most heroic of I shall appear in full spread on Thursday womankind!" she cried. "I cast myself in you give this poor old soldier?" to spend the day. I can't sit down; but I the dust at thy feet, I envy, I adore thee, should like the lean of a bed-post and a cord; thou woman who darest !"

Hester Graywood, another old friend. After the first salutation, she slowly twirled herself round, and sank into a chair exclaiming : Ah! I saw; she, too, had on a new dress. It was of silvery-gray silk, made with one am wearing it; and I lose my self-respect skirt, without a particle of trimming on it, in consequence. But how could I help my-she booked charming. Yet, on a second glance, there seemed a kind of bareness about her, as if something were wanting. Was this because I had looked so long on mountains rooms, I don't dare to peep or mutter." of frippery that my eye and taste had both been corrupted? Ten years ago we all wore submit than make a fuss.'

Lou; "it's sheer cowardice in my case, not amiability. Every lady's dress should be an character-but look at us! we are all turned means fashionably dressed. She can't afford severely consistent—they are eloquent on to hire her sewing done; so, in addition to that theme, I know; but put a plainly-dressed all her housework, she makes their dresses; girl on one side of a man, and a fluttering and if you have seen Gracie, the eldest one, piece of millinery on the other, and ten to it. Remember, it is one he will be enchanted with the latter chimneys than to She's a very stylish-looking girl," I said. John Seymour is not the only victim of "pink you give all to back Yes'; and her mother is very proud of and white tyranny." her, as is natural. She is just seventeen;

young, and you w

and fine expression, or in her furbelows and Tom's step in the hall; and with him came "In her, of course," I said. "Children he had asked to dine with us. The professor and young girls are never so pleasing as when is a fine-looking man, besides being learned. "Certainly; and our taste is corrupted never make matches; but, having had such when we do not see this. But there's poor a good time together ourselves, we do some-Mrs. T. thinks it absolutely necessary to follow the last fashion-plate; so she works like a fancy to each other; and the night before the principal actor in this little social a slave from morning till night and her we had spaken of the professor and Hester, drama, sawing-machine is often going till after midbe in the city just then to meet her. has done the work of two women, and it is severe taste, and his dislike of all display. the hardest kind of work, too. Every inch of had all the morning inwardly chuckled over those interminable yards of hemming and Hester's untrimmed dress; it was exactly the it was she wore it!

believe there is a woman in the city harder Hester brilliant; the professor genial; and, "Those in school haven't any time. Gracie learned professor and the pretty Hester could does all she can; but with her calls and callers, not have come together under more auspicious.

"But it's absurd," I said, "for a mechanie's guests. ' I don't know as a mechanic's wife can cagerly.

the whole subject is full of difficulties. 'All of which might be overcome if women they have waked up to a sense of their strength

*Dear Hers. Here I am at the Hub at the west end of it: is that the hubbiest part, the principles of art, true art, might be ap-I wonder? I am coming over to see you on plied to dress as to other things; that there Thursday. I meant to go to-day; but I can't : is an essential, intrinsic beauty or ugliness in I'm all used up,- clear tuckered out," as our garments, entirely irrespective of fashion; Aunt Polly used to say. "What has done in other words, that it is one thing to be well huge and hideous, -a camel or dromedary, " I can tell you what it isn't," said Hester. It isn't to wear a huge protuberance on your head or your, back, which, if you had in the world, if it were only with a pen. " llow came it so deformed?" In an evil been born with it, would have been consid-In I listened to the voice of the tempter, ered a shocking deformity. It isn't to conand put myself into the hands of a city dress- ceal all the lines of the human figure, or to eagle eye to see if he wouldn't fit in one make it one mountain of trimming, when of his sky Boudoirs. trimming should always be subservient, adding grace, and defining outlines. And then, meant; and I went to her rooms in sweet, too, it must be something permanent. It confiding simplicity, bearing in an innocent- can't be the changing thing fashionable targe Seances with Mrs. Cuttit, a most impes- us this month, and a scantily-draped statue dressing is. Art wouldn't make a balloon of always found on the counter.

plain; I came out hump-backed; I went in with forty dollars in my purse; I came out "That would be comfort," I

"Well, Hepsy, I believe the good time is coming-the time when we shall have a higher civilization, and break the chains fashion fetters us with now. Then we shall distinguish between true beauty and deformity; and our milliners and dressmakers will artistes, and not modistes; and, instead of opping and stretching us all on one iron bed. they will study adaptation to age, complexion, and character, till we come out of their hands individual, as well as comfortable and attractive. When we think of it, isn't it naturally enough, our thoughts still ran on feit. We will give an example : "I am disgusted with myself," said Lou; I really am. I don't want to be fashion- old soldier ?" able; I couldn't afford it if I did; but my tastes are all plain and simple. I consider such an over-loaded, puffed-out concern as this not only ridiculous, but vulgar; yet here

"I should as soon think of fighting Hercules," said Lou. . "There's no place where I am so thoroughly cowed as in dressmakers' "Yes; -amiable people like you rather

"But they ought to make a fuss," said expression of her own individual taste and something for a wet day; but he can't as fend of descriptor; a wife and six children in luxury, ence goes." "Well, my dear, men are not always fineries. To be warm is the main thing;

"Then men are in a measure responsible hard and work I in! They are all affoat with puffs and "So I tell Tom," I said. "Let every man rest when you are