

	OUTTOT O UL TO OU	All Policies Incontestible			nation. On Monday the official paper	This arrow which Mitchell let fly, re-	was given recently, at New York, dis-
	OFFICE-Over the Drug Store of Mesers. nomas & Bobbit. J-13-1y		$2,000 to $3,000, according to	Dining Room	of the government published the official	ferred to the speech which the Bishop	covered that almost every overcost in locality and style of finish. The	Prazza	account of the mutiny, and the execu-	of Glouceter and Bristol recently made,	his charge had a loaded revolver in the.
-	B. J. G. KING,	ANNUAL PAYMENTS, EXCEPT	plan, which is made on a scale of		tion of Midshipman Spencer and two of his alleged accomplices. Mr. Spen-	in which he advised the farmers to	pocket.
		IN CASE OF FRAUD.			cer, the father of the young man, then	"duck in the home need" any aritaton	It is estimated that the strawberry
	WARRENTON, N. C.		one-sixteenth of an inch to one		Secretary of the Treasury, was over-	chat came mos men neignoornood to	crop of Long Island during the coming season will be at least 120,000 quarts, or
1	OFFICE Next door to Residence, & North		foot, explains itself. The elegant	FIRST FLOOR.	whelmed with grief and horror. The	make their theorers dissatisfied. It is	nearly 4,000 bushels. At Mattituck the de Court House Square. 'Ju-13-1y.	Issues Policies on all Plans and on the		and the second s	news came upon him suddenly, without	now cance sie bishop's baptism.	crop is expected to be at least 60,000
	HAS. ALSTON COOK,	Most Favorable Terms, either	exerior shown in the perspective		premonition. He was a tender and de-	An investigation in Somersetshire presented a gloomier picture even than	quarts.
		with or without	view, will receive the approval of	Bauki	voted father. His son, a peculiar and	that which the farm hand drew. At one	A big ruffian in Boston undertook
	Attorney and Counsellor at Law,		persons of taste. Without the	Hed Boom	perhaps wayward lad, was his favorite child. He was full of genius, not un-	of the meetings held in that country	the other night, to bully a servant girl
	WARRENTON, N. C.	Profits.	persons of taste. Without the		amiable in disposition, fond of study,	Charles Wright, described as an elderly	left alone in a house into getting him
	Practices in the Courts of Warren, Franklin,	Though this Company has paid to 400 mem-	commanding appearance of more	7	and addicted to curious speculation ;	the second s	dinner. She went for him with a carv-
	ash and Halifax and in the Supreme Court	bers the sum of	ambitious edifices, such a house,	a deserve spectrum	shy, reserved, and given to solitary	as follows:	ing knife, and he went away as hungry rompt attention given to all business entrust- to him. Office, in the Court House.				musing. The story of the mutiny and	Question. "Have you been a farm laborer all your life?" Answer. "Yes."
			surrounded by tastefully arranged		the nefarious designs charged upon		A village paper, speaking of the pres- ent depression of its town, says it is 38	DR. R. E. KING,		shrubbery, and placed on an appro-	Chumber	young Spencer was unsupported by any evidence that would have carried con-	standing wages for the best men were	caused by lack of unamimity, lack of DENTIST,	Yet its losses, in proportion to the number of	priate site, would present a very		viction to the mind of a competent	seven shillings a week ?" A. "Yes."	sociability, lack of home pride, distruct the insured and the amount of insurance, have	pretty appearance, as our readers		tribunal. Mackenzie attempted to	(A voice: "I do; six Shillings.")	of one another, and a great desire for 1		been resnarkably lew and light. To all persons		Chamber (palliate his guilt by the declaration that	Q. "The laborer twenty years of age	braggart display.
128	OFFICES Warrenton over Norwood &		nothing, the remedy for which is	Chamber and the second	the execution of the young man was	had only seven shillings?" A. "Yes." Q. "Did you ever have parish relief?"	The president of a Nashville street in the Louisbrane of Theat's Thetal		always at hand, that we so much		ordered for the reason that the influence	4	railway responded to a demand for fare
-		terror terror to the second			of his father would have screened him	She left me with seven children."	by saying, "I own most of this road," and got this reply: "Well, you won't
3	DODITION WOLDER	PORTPUT CACE D	neglect, as the architectural de-	Chamber	from punishment if he had been brought home for trial. In other words, he had	Q. "Your wages some ten or eleven	own it long if you don't pay me your
	Fire Insurance	Thus a strange of the	sign of our dwellings ; and we		hung Spencer and his associates because	years ago were raised to eight shillings	fare; that's all I've got to say about it."
		ISAAC H. ALLEN, Sec'y	publish the plans herewith, in		of his apprehension that they would be	a week ?" A. "Yes ; and last summer	A Winona paper tells of a snow-drift
	COMPANY.		order that the evil may be cor-		acquitted if tried by a court having	Q. "After harvest did your master	hetween St. Peter and New Ulm, Min-
100	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		rected in our vicinity, at least.	Burney Inc. Burney	authority to take cognizance of the	say to you, 'There's five shillings a week	nesota, on which four hundred shovels .
	ACCUMULATED CAPITAL $444 96 08	COACH MANUFACTORY.		SECOND FLOOR.	accusation. The trial of Mackenzie by court-mar-	for you if you continue to live with me ;	were engaged for days. The snow was 13	10001101111111 0111111111 04441200.30	UUAUH MANUFAUTURY.			tial was nothing but a solemn farce. It	if not, go home?' Is that true ?" A.	from 25 to 30 feet deep, and the cut
33	Chartered by the commonwealth of Va		How She Stopped It.	A Railroad Seized by an Armed Force.	having been determined by the Navy		through the drift was twelve hundred
1	Office N. E. Cor. of Main and 9th St's.,		An exchange says the subject of bor-	A railroad war of some magnitude has	Department, under the influence of	An instruction of a second sec	feet long.
			rowing and lending came up in the	been in progress at Youngstown, Ohio.	Commodore Perry and his associate	have to pay out of that?" A. "One shilling and sevenpence half-penny a	New Hampshire Republicant and Democrats alike seem to commend the RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.	J. W. WILLIAMS,	course of a conversation with one of its	About a year ago the stockholders of the	post-captains, that the discipline and	week."	graceful action of Gov. Straw in ap-
	Number of Policies issued 7,491.		subscribers the other day, when he sud- denly recollected a funny reminiscence	Liberty and Xenia Railroad Company	honor of the service required not only the acquittal of the chief criminal and	Q. "On wet days were your wages	pointing to a sest on the State Bench
1	Amount of property insured $7,499,859.14. Amount of Deposit Notes Deposited with	Warrenton, N. C.,	of that character which had happened			paid ?" A. "No ; I lost the time."
128	ha Comment 6100 007 00		OI LIAL CHARACLEE WHICH DAD DADDEDED		his subordinates, but the formal ap-		Hon, Ellery A. Hibbard, the defeated
1	the Company, $420,067.26.		in his own neighborhood. He said he	Youngstown and Pittsburg Railroad Company, receiving in payment part in	his subordinates, but the formal ap- proval of their cruel and atrocious con-	Q. "When you were at harvest till	Democratic candidate for re-election to
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received	Respectfully announces to the public that his	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great	Company, receiving in payment part in	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress.
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly.	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice:	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Amount of cash premiums and fees received $233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages ,	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow-	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!")	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the
and the second	Amount of cash premiums and fees received $233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons,	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving-	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received $233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies—	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady another with a seldom.	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs-	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any onc" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut
のないのである	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons,	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured the e invasions for a long time	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Railroad Company	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible.	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business
のないのである	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— Dr. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured the e invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra-	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white
and the second se	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— Dr. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured these invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay,	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex-	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to nay and be said like white
and the second se	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured these invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun-	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did you get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— Dr. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had.	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., maile a
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Sfx."	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in As	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Six." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?"	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., maile a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit-
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. SI70,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly DR. S. G. WARD ,	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured the e invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped alltrains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for-	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Six." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured the e invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped alltrains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were	Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Six." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?"	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspoper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt.
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly DR. S. G. WARD , Broker, Real Estate,	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped alltrains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men.	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Six." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly DR. S. G. WARD, Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT,	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Bailroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise.	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'Hé was then asked how many children he had. A. "Sfx." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspoper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt.
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. DR. S. G. WARD, Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C.,	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured the e invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Bailroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrst- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Sfx." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "Do you all sleep in one room?" 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., maile a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to ani- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt.
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly DR. S. G. WARD, Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT,	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work. all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture. ALL NEW WORK WARRANTED.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited nothing more than a repetion of the order.	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown and Pittsburg road are now at Youngs-	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. He then called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version of the Somers affair, horrifying him with the statement of the mutiny and	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abrs- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Six." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "Do you all sleep in one room?" A. "Yes." 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to sni- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through
and the second se	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-ly DR. S. G. WVARD, Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C., Has for sale	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited nothing more than a repetion of the order. "Jim, did I not tell thee to get me a	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- tewn and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown and Pittsburg road are now at Youngs- town, and it is reported that a special train has left Pittsburg with reinforce.	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version of the Somers affair, horrifying him with the statement of the mutiny and the hanging of Midshipman Spencer	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for nine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'Hé was then asked how many children he had. A. "Sfx." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Getting the Boys Up. 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to ani- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through the deep snow until they stopped from
and the second se	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. SI70,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. DR. S. G. WARD, BROKER, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C., Has for sale 75 Thousand Acres of Land	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture. ALL NEW WORK WARRANTED. Keeping thoroughly posted, as I do, in all the latest styles of work, I am fully prepared to	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited nothing more than a repetion of the order. "Jim, did I not tell thee to get me a pound of the best tea and a new canis-	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown and Pittsburg road are now at Youngs- town, and it is reported that a special train has left Pittsburg with reinforce- ments for McCreery, who is backed by	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version of the Somers affair, horrifying him with the statement of the mutiny and the hanging of Midshipman Spencer and two confederates in the crime. Peck	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Six." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "Do you all sleep in one room?" A. "Yes." Getting the Boys Up. Calling a boy up in the morning can 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to sni- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through the deep snow until they stopped from exhaustion, then left them on the road
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. SI70,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. DR. S. G. WARD, Broker , Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C., Has for sale 75 Thousand Acres of Land in Warren County, North Carolina and 500 Tons	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture. ALL NEW WORK WARRANTED. Keeping thoroughly posted, as I do, in all the latest styles of work, I am fully prepared to furnish at short notice,	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited nothing more than a repetion of the order. "Jim, did I not tell thee to get me a pound of the best tea and a new canis- ter? Now go along and do as I bid	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown and Pittsburg road are now at Youngs- town, and it is reported that a special train has left Pittsburg with reinforce- ments for McCreery, who is backed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version of the Somers affair, horrifying him with the statement of the mutiny and the hanging of Midshipman Spencer and two confederates in the crime. Peck naturally inquired how many of the	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Sfx." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "Do you all sleep in one room?" A. "Yes." Getting the Boys Up. Calling a boy up in the morning can hardly be classed under the head of 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to sni- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through the deep snow until they stopped from exhaustion, then left them on the road reeking with perspiration, and went to
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. $170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGEH, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-1y DR. S. G. WARD, Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C., Has for sale 75 Thousand Acres of Land in Warren County, North Carolina, and 500 Tons of Watson's & Clark's Sup. Phosphate.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture. ALL NEW WORK WARRANTED. Keeping thoroughly posted, as I do, in all the latest styles of work, I am fully prepared to	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing. but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited nothing more than a repetion of the order. "Jim, did I not tell thee to get me a pound of the best tea and a new canis- ter? Now go along and do as I bid thee."	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown and Pittsburg road are now at Youngs- town, and it is reported that a special train has left Pittsburg with reinforce- ments for McCreery, who is backed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Great excitement prevailed, and there	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version of the Somers affair, horrifying him with the statement of the mutiny and the hanging of Midshipman Spencer and two confederates in the crime. Peck naturally inquired how many of the mutineers were in irons on board the	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Sfx." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "Do you all sleep in one room?" A. "Yes." Calling a boy up in the morning can hardly be classed under the head of "pastimes," especially if the boy is 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., made a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to sni- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through the deep snow until they stopped from exhaustion, then left them on the road
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. SI70,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGEH, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-1y DR. S. G. WARD, Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C., Has for sale 75 Thousand Acres of Land in Warren County, North Carolina, and 500 Tons of Watson's & Clark's Sup. Phosphate. REFERENCES.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture. ALL NEW WORK WARRANTED. Keeping thoroughly posted, as I do, in all the latest styles of work, I am fully prepared to furnish at short notice, The Most Fashionable Vehicle.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited nothing more than a repetion of the order. "Jim, did I not tell thee to get me a pound of the best tea and a new canis- ter? Now go along and do as I bid thee." And go along he did, and when he	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown and Pittsburg road are now at Youngs- town, and it is reported that a special train has left Pittsburg with reinforce- ments for McCreery, who is backed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version of the Somers affair, horrifying him with the statement of the mutiny and the hanging of Midshipman Spencer and two confederates in the crime. Peck naturally inquired how many of the mutineers were in irons on board the vessel, and expressed his surprise that	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Six." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "Do you all sleep in one room?" A. "Yes." Calling a boy up in the morning can hardly be classed under the head of "pastimes," especially if the boy is fond of exercise the day before. And it is a little singular that the next hardest 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., maile a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson'granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to sni- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through the deep snow until they stopped from exhaustion, then left them on the road reeking with perspiration, and went to a neighboring house for the night. In the morning he was so enraged at find- ing one of them dead, that he termina-
	Amount of cash premiums and fees received 233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c. SI70,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies— DR. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGEH, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co., Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C. oc19-1y DR. S. G. WARD, Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C., Has for sale 75 Thousand Acres of Land in Warren County, North Carolina, and 500 Tons of Watson's & Clark's Sup. Phosphate. REFERENCES.	Respectfully announces to the public that his stock of Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies. Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C. MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING ANY KIND OF VEHICLE Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrons are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my manufacture. ALL NEW WORK WARRANTED. Keeping thoroughly posted, as I do, in all the latest styles of work, I am fully prepared to furnish at short notice, The Most Fashionable Vehicle.	in his own neighborhood. He said he had a neighbor whose family were great borrowers, but not so distinguished as paymasters—they were always borrow- ing, but seldom, if ever, returned the exact amount borrowed. An old Quaker lady, another neighbor, who had en- dured there invasions for a long time patiently, hit upon a very philosophical mode of eventually putting a stop to the nuisance. Keeping her own coun- sel, the next time her good man went to town, he had a separate and express or- der to purchase a pound of the best tea and also a new canister to put it in. As he knew she already had plenty of tea and also a canister, he was puzzled to determine what the old lady wanted of more tea and a new canister, but his questionings and reasonings elicited nothing more than a repetion of the order. "Jim, did I not tell thee to get me a pound of the best tea and a new canis- ter? Now go along and do as I bid thee." And go along he did, and when he	Company, receiving in payment part in cash and part in bonds of the latter Company. Owing to some subsequent misunderstanding the matter was taken before the courts, and for the past four or five months the Ashtabula, Youngs- town and Pittsburg Railroad Company have held control of the former road by virtue of an injunction which expired lately, at which time there appeared upon the premises two of the principal stockholders of the Liberty and Xenia road, with a large force of men, who tore up the track, cut the telegraph wires, stopped all trains, took possession of the rolling-stock, and are now in for- cible possession of the road with a force of two to three hundred armed men. William McCreery, President, and other officers of the Ashtabula, Youngstown and Pittsburg road are now at Youngs- town, and it is reported that a special train has left Pittsburg with reinforce- ments for McCreery, who is backed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Great excitement prevailed, and there	proval of their cruel and atrocious con- duct, it only remained to shape the court and conform its decision accordingly. There was a circumstance known to the commanding officer of the receiving- ship Hudson which, if brought to the public knowledge, would have made the acquittal difficult, if not impossible. When the Somers arrived at New York she was anchored in the lower bay, communication with the shore being strictly prohibited. Mackenzie visited the Navy-yard, reporting his arrival to the commanding officer. Hethen called upon Captain Peck, in command of the Hudson. Peck and himself were of the same grade in the service, and they were on terms of familiar intimacy, having been messmates on a former cruise. Mackenzie gave his friend his version of the Somers affair, horrifying him with the statement of the mutiny and the hanging of Midshipman Spencer and two confederates in the crime. Peck naturally inquired how many of the mutineers were in irons on board the	 Q. "When you were at harvest till ten or eleven o'clock did yon get any thing extra?" A. "No." (A voice: "A quart of sour cider!") Here the chairman asked if any one" wished to put any further questions. A gentleman called out that his father had once worked for fine shillings a week, and was now worth £2,000. Abra- ham Burt was next examined. His ex- perience repeated that of the above as to wages. 'He was then asked how many children he had. A. "Sfx." Q. "How many bedrooms have you?" A. "One." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "How many bedsteads?" A. "Two." Q. "Do you all sleep in one room?" A. "Yes." Calling a boy up in the morning can hardly be classed under the head of "pastimes," especially if the boy is fond of exercise the day before. And it is a little singular that the next hardest 	Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress. After fifteen years' experience, the Omaha publishers have come to the conclusion that the newspaper business is a legitimate one, and they have cut off their dead-heads and given notice that free puffing has also ceased. All they ask is to pay and be paid like white folks. Mat. Tarpey, who was hanged by the lynchers near Monterey, Cal., maile a will giving $1,000 to Nicholson, the husband of his victim. Nicholson wit- nessed the lynching, and Tarpey beg- ged his forgiveness, and asked him to place his hands on his head as he knelt. Nicholson'granted the request. An outrageous case of cruelty to sni- mals recently occurred at Somerset, Vt. A man drove a team of horses through the deep snow until they stopped from exhaustion, then left them on the road reeking with perspiration, and went to a neighboring house for the night. In the morning he was so enraged at find- ing one of them dead, that he termina-

lady took them from him with an amused expression on her usual placid features, and depositing the tea in the canister, set it on the shelf for a special use. It had not long to wait, for the borrowing neighbor had frequent use for the aromatic herb. The good old lady loaned generously, emptying back in the canister any remittance of borrowed teas which the neighbor's conscience inclined her to make. Time went on, and after something less than thing to getting a boy out of bed is ted the sufferings of the other by stabtinous crew were none of them under getting him into it. There is rarely a bing it with a knife. mother who is a success at rousing a Troy has its sensation. This time a boy. All mothers know this ; so do youth who loved a lady ($50,000 worth), there that the City of San Salvador had tion it had not been found necessary to their boys. And yet the mother seems beguiled her into a sleigh ride, and to go at it in the right way. She opens sought the house of a elergyman, sevthe door, and insinuatingly observes, eral miles from the city. He then first "Johnny!" There is no response. declared his love, and told her she must "John-ny !" Still no response. Then marry him. She flatly refused, and he there is a short, sharp "John !" fol-lowed a moment later by a prolonged plucky girl started to do so, but the Ocean, 105 miles southeast of Guate- seizing upon the first dozen of the men and emphatic " John Henry." A grunt foiled fortune-hunter relented, and carfrom the upper regions signifies that an ried her back to Troy. When in the has been made and the

Keeps constantly on hand and for sale, Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, French and American Calf NO NORTHERN WORK KEPT On

Aug10-tf

Wagons,

Carts,

Drays and

MADE TO ORDER.

Barrows,

ker, 8 Wall Street, New York. Col. Wharton J.

Green, Attorney at Law, Baltimore Md. Gen. M. W. Ransom, U. S. Senator, Washington, D. C., Ex-Governor P. H. Bell, Warrenton, N. C.

JOHN R. JOHNSON,

BOOT AND SHOE MAKER

Warrenton, N. C.

Bkir	es, Galters, French and American Calf	NU NURTHERN WURK KEPT ON HAND.	went on, and after something less than	volcano of San Salvador. At various clapped them in irons. The fact never impression has been made, and the city, she slapped his face, leaped from	6
Bine	ding Skins, Shoe Makers' Tools and Find-	NU NURTHERN WURK KEPT ON HAND.	the one hundredth time of borrowing, the neighbor again appeared for "just	times it has suffered greatly from earth- came to the knowledge of the court mother is encouraged to add, "You'd the sleigh, and ran home. Names are
Hee	a, consisting of Wax, Bristles, Threads, Balls, Pegs, Nails, Sand Paper, &c. &c.	Prices and Terms Liberal.	another drawing of tea," when the oft visited tea canister was brought out	quakes, by one of which it was nearly and it was carefully suppressed in the better be getting down here to your withheld for the lady's sake.
1	JARRATT'S HOTEL,		and found to be empty, and the good	which it came near suffering a similar President Tyler, a warm-hearted and there an' give you something you'll A Syracuse genteeman and mis whe
	PETERSBURG, VA.	FISK'S METALLIC	old lady and obliging neighbor was just one pound of tea poorer than when she	and contained several churches, a fine ings of Mr. Spencer and his family, and that he immediately goes to sleep again. tended Southern tour, internating to	i.
СН	ARLES BISHOP, PROPRIETOR.	BURIAL CASES.	bought the new canister which now only remained to tell the story. Then	a population of about 18,000 souls. In far as lay in his power, commissioned several times. A father knows nothing They got as far as New fors, and in	1
	ATLANTIC HOTEL,		she made a little characteristic speech, perhaps the first in her life; she said:	30,000, but after the earthquake of the secretary the place of minister to his mouth as a soda bottle ejects its tleman was robbed of his wallet con
N	ORFOLK, VIRGINIA	I keep on hand all sizes of these celebrated cases, which will be furnished promptly, and at the lowest prices.	filled it for thee with a pound of my	mentioned above. Then the Govern- most suitable mode of relieving the be- cleaves the air of that stairway goes with which he was to deiray the ex-
	R. S. DODSON, Proprietor.	An Elegant Hearse,	best tea and I have lent it all to thee in driblets and put in to it all thou hast sent me in return, and none but thyself	the capital laid out a new city, called the opportunity of leaving a position pierces the deepest receives of his very gentleman's Syracuse house may be Nuevo San Salvador, ten miles nearer where every thing tended to keep alive nature. And he pops one of that bed seen a thoughtful man chopping wood
L Jak	BOARD, First and Second Floors, Per	Always Ready for Use.	hath taken therefrom or added unto it, and now thou seest it empty; therefore	the sea, and transferred to it the seat of and exasperate their misery. A change and into his clothes and down the in his shirt sieves, while a sight government, but so large a number of of scene he thought calculating to blunt stairs with a promptness that is com-
Ini	rd and Fourth Floors, 2.50 Special terms for Permanent Boarders.		I will say to thee, thou hast borrowed thyself out and I can lend thee no	the inhabitants preferred the old place the edge of their sufferings, and divert mendable. It is rarely a boy allows A solicitor who had recently been en- that in 1855 it was again made the their minds from the contemplating of himself to disregard the paternal sum-
	CODORICE A. WILLIAMS. JNO. N. WILLIAMS.	A careful and experienced undertaker will ac- company every case sold, when desired.	more !"	capital cruel and atrocious crime of which the mons. About once a year is believed firm, returned to the office of his em-
	T. A. WILLIAMS & Co.,		OUR MANUFACTURES. The census re- ports enumerate the following values	ABOUT EELSA scientific gentleman, who has given a great deal of attention Mr. Spencer expressed his gratitude great many steps by his thoughtfulness. man on whom he had called. "Snub-
	Successors to WILLIAMS & SELDEN,	Wooden Coffins Made to Order.	of our manufacturing products in 1870, viz : of heavy iron works, $347,000,000;	to the habits of bugs and butterflies, declares, says a San Francisco news- warm terms, and requested his agent to
W	HOLESALE GROCERS, and		of steel, $12,000,000 ; products of flour	paper, that he has discovered a remark- able fact about eels. A stream which thoughtful 'consideration which had called out the commander-in-chief, life insurance from the Atlantic to the
	COMMISSION MERCHANTS,	J. W. WILLIAMS,	and grist mills, $445,000,000; leather, $160,000,000; boots and shoes, $180,-	flows through his farm in San Bernar- prompted the offer, and to say that he as the army stood in line of battle. Mississippi, and have been down
14	Nec. 92 and 94 WATER STREET,	Main Street,	000,000; worsted goods, $22,000,000; cotton goods, $168,000,000; woolen	the case that around the second and the second state the
21.4	NORFOLK, VA.	WARDENTON	goods, $151,000,000 ; men's clothing, $147,000,000 ; hosiery, $6,000,000.	these extraordinary fish leave the river A week or more elapsed without the begin," said the General. That is the end through of the
	Nor-2-17	WARRENTON, N.	$147,000,000 ; hosiery, $6,000,000.	to graze in the meadow. President hearing from Mr. Spencer. way Mike tells the story.	2

Destroyed by an Earthquake.

be had when she was leaving.

an officer and two of his associates, and

When the steamship St. Louis left arrest; that he had been able to subdue the port of Salvador there was a report the insurrection ; and after the execu-been destroyed by a great earthquake confine any of the men. "What," ex-on the 4th of March. The telegraph lines claimed Peck, "a mutiny so entensive to the port being down, no details could and formidable as to justify hanging

The City of San Salvador, situated on nobody in irons !" Mackenzie returned a little stream flowing into the Pacific immediately on board the Somers, and mala, is about three miles from the upon whom he could lay his hands,