on the following terms:

VOL. I.

WARRENTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 17, 1873.

NO. 44.

H. A. FOOTE,

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Warrenton. N.C.

Insure Your Life

SECURITY

Life Insurance and Annity

COMPANY

NEW YORK.

R. G. HAY, General Agent for North B. D. WILLIAMS, Special Agent for North Carolina.

Restriction on Travel, DR. J. H. COOK, All Policies Incontestible

AND NON-FORFEITING AFTER THREE ANNUAL PAYMENTS, EXCEPT IN CASE OF FRAUD.

Issues Policies on all Plans and on the Most Favorable Terms, either with or without Profits.

Though this Company has paid to 400 mem-

$1,000,000,

Yet its losses, in proportion to the number of the insured and the amount of insurance, have been remarkably few and light. To all persons seeking Mutual Insurance, this fact is very important, and in addition to this, no applicant will be received if his health is in the slightest impaired.

ROBERT L. CASE, Pres. ISAAC H. ALLEN, Sec'y

COACH MANUFACTORY

J. W. WILLIAMS,

Warrenton, N. C.,

Respectfully announces to the public that his Carriages, Phaetons, Buggies.

Spring Wagons, And every description of the finer class of work, all of home manufacture, is unexcelled in this section of N. C.

MY FACILITIES FOR MANUFACTURING

ANY KIND OF VEHICLE

Are greater than at any time heretofore, and my patrods are sure of getting the full value of their money in any article purchased, of my

ALL NEW WORK WARRANTED. Keeping thoroughly posted, as I do, in all the latest styles of work, I am fully prepared to furnish at short notice.

The Most Fashionable Vehicle.

The hands employed in my establishment are thoroughly competent and skillful in every de-

Wagons, Carts, Drays and

Barrows, MADE TO ORDER.

NO NORTHERN WORK KEPT on HAND.

Prices and Terms Liberal.

FISK'S METALLIC

BURIAL CASES. I keep on hand all sizes of these celebrated cases, which will be furnished promptly, and at the lowest prices.

An Elegant Hearse,

Always Ready for Use. A careful and experienced undertaker will accompany every case sold, when desired.

Wooden Coffins Made to Order,

J. W. WILLIAMS, Main Street,

WARRENTON, N. C.

INSURE YOUR LIFE IN THE

PIEDMONT & ARLINGTON

Life Insurance Company,

RICHMOND, Va.

POLICIES LIBERAL & NON-FORFEITABLE PROGRESS RAPID AND CAUTIOUS, LOSS AND EXPENSES SMALL, ASSETS AMPLE AND WELL SECTRED.

ANNUAL INCOME OVER

One and a Quarter Million Dollars. Its ratio of Expense to Income in 1871 was only

OVER 17,500 POLICIES ISSUED, TO OCTOBER, T IS THE LEADING SOUTHERN COMPANY, AND HAS THE ENDORSEMENT OF VARIOUS INSUR-

ANCE DEPARTMENTS. Has paid out for losses in the last five years

A HALF MILLION DOLLARS.

S. W. GOODSON, Traveling Ag't. JOHN C. McRaw, Local Ag't.

PROFESSIONAL. DR. THOMAS E. WILSON, Having returned to this place, offers his professional services to the citizens of this town and Office one door below Jno. R. Johnson's Boot and Shoe Factory.

Having retired from the DRUG BUSINESS. will devote his entire time to his PROFES-OFFICE-Over the Drug Store of Messrs. Thomas & Bobbit. Ju-13-1y

DR. J. G. KING,

WARRENTON, N. C.

DFFICE.-Next door to Residence, on North Sile Court House Square. THAS. ALSTON COOK.

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

WARRENTON, N. C. Practices in the Courts of Warren, Franklin, Nah and Halifax, and in the Supreme Court. Prempt attention given to all business entrusted o him. Office, in the Court House.

PR. R. E. KING, DENTIST,

Ofers his professional services to the public in every department of Dentistry. OFFICES. — Warrenton, over Norwood & Davs. Louisburg—at Dent's Hotel.

SCUTHERN MUTUAL

Fire Insurance COMPANY.

ACCUMULATED CAPITAL, $444,206.98 Chartered by the Commonwealth of Va.

Office N. E. Cor. of Main and 9th St's., RICHMOND, VIRGINIA. Number of Policies issued 7.491.

Amount of property insured $7,499,859.74. Amount of Deposit Notes Deposited with the Company, $420,067.26. Amount of cash premiums and fees received $233,514.82. Amount paid for losses, expenses, &c.

$170,765.39. Issues Term and participating policies-Dr. H. G. DAVIDSON, President. JORDAN H. MARTIN, Vice President. H. S. PRICE, Secretary and Treasurer. J. E. NEISWANGER, Asst. Secretary. S. B. JONES, of Fork Union, Fluvanna Co.,

DR. S. G. WARD.

Broker, Real Estate, AND GENERAL AGENT, WARRENTON, N. C.,

Has for sale

Va., Genl. Agt. for N. C.

75 Thousand Acres of Land in Warren County, North Carolina, and 500 Tons of Watson's & Clark's Sup. Phosphate. REFERENCES.

Hon. Charles R. Train, Attorney General, Boston, Mass. Charles B. Yardley, Esq., Ban-ker, 8 Wall Street, New York. Col. Wharton J. Green, Attorney at Law, Baltimore Md. Gen. M. W. Ransom, U. S. Senator, Washington, D. C., Ex-Governor P. H. Bell, Warrenton, N. C.

Aug10-tf JOHN R. JOHNSON, BOOT AND SHOE MAKER,

Warrenton, N. C. Keeps constantly on hand and for sale, Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, French and American Calf Skins, Sole and Upper Leather, Lining and Binding Skins, Shee Makers' Tools and Findings, consisting of Wax, Bristles, Threads, Heel Balls, Pegs, Nails, Sand Paper, &c. &c.

JARRATT'S HOTEL,

PETERSBURG, VA. CHARLES BISHOP, PROPRIETOR. ATLANTIC HOTEL,

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA. R. S. DODSON, Proprietor.

BOARD, First and Second Floors, Per

Day, Third and Fourth Floors, - - - - 2.50 Special terms for Permanent Boarders.

THEODORICK A. WILLIAMS. JNO. N. WILLIAMS. T. A. WILLIAMS & Co.,

Successors to WILLIAMS & SELDEN, WHOLESALE CROCERS, and COMMISSION MERCHANTS, Nos. 92 and 94 WATER STREET, NORFOLK, VA.

Guild's Signal.

Two low whistles, quaint and clear, That was the signal the engineer-That was the signal that Guild, 'tis said-Gave to his wife at Providence. As through the sleeping town, and thence, Out in the night,

On to the light, Down past the farms, lying white, he sped !. As a husband's greeting, scant, no doubt, Yet to the woman looking out, Watching and waiting, no serenade.

Love song or midnight roundelay Said what that whistle seemed to say: "To my trust true So love to you!

Working or waiting, Good night !" it said. Brisk young bagmen, tourists fine, Old commuters along the line ... Brakemen and porters glanced ahead, Smiled as the signal, sharp, intense, Pierced through the shadows of Providence; " Nothing amiss. Nothing ; it is Only Guild calling his wife," they said.

Summer and winter, the old refrain Rang o'er the billows of ripening grain. Pierced through the budding boughs o'erhead Flew down the track when the red leaves burned

Like living coals from the engine spurned : Sang as it flew : "To our trust true. First of all Duty-Good night," it said.

And then, one night, it was heard no more, From Stonington over Rhode Island shore, And the folk in Providence smiled and said,

To his trust true, Guild lay under his engine, dead.

THE BILL COLLECTOR,

A Most Mysterious Acquaintance. He was a peculiar-looking person, not more than thirty, I should say, with a face full of points; rather tall, with an easy, shambling gait; scarcely well dressed; hardly a gentleman, and if not face full of points," I do not mean intellectual points, reflective points, vicions points, in fact, any ordinary or extraordinary points, but rather a face full of possibilities. Was he an actor, an artist, an eccentric man of letters? After considerable scrutiny, I decided "No." Was he a professional of any kind? Since nowadays the professions are so varied, I said, after much hesitation, "Yes, a professional." The decision availed little. Meanwhile the man's presence had a fascination for me. As I occasionally met his small lacked the hard expression and the secretive air acquired by that odious yet necessary member of society. This was a few years ago, on the long colonnade of Congress Hall, in Saratogs. My man would take a position favorable for seeing the world which ourged to and fro, and there he would sit nearly all the morning, nearly all the afternoon, not talking with anybody, doing literally nothing, except in the way of observation. I did not once see him speaking with a human being. It was all the same to him, I am sure, for he wore perpetually that easy, vagabondish look. I resolved to scrape acquaintance with him. Taking advantage of a vacant seat next him, I sat down. "A fine day?"

It was with this original observation commenced the attack. He actually turned and looked me full in the face, as much as to say, "Who the deuce are you, and what object can you have in speaking to me?" A pleasant look, nevertheless, though not unmixed with suspicion. After he had satisfied himself apparently, he replied, "Very." The answer certainly was not provocative of further conversation still it was not spoken in a sharp, cutoff tone, but dropped from his lips in an acquiescing, amiable way, as if here was a congenial subject on which we could exchange confidences. "Do you know," I said, "that, of all the people I have seen here, you appear to be most enjoying yourself." "How is that?" He uttered "How is that?" in the easiest, most companionable tone imaginable, as if we were old friends about to enjoy a snug, cozy chat. "Why, you seem to take things philosophically, and to make of Saratoga, what in reality it should be, a place to rest and recreate in." "Well, you have hit my case, that's a fact-it is rest that I am after! though I don't care much for the recreation." "You don't look overworked." "Don't I? That is strange. It is owing to my native vigor, I guess. Perhaps you won't believe me if I tell you posed-on individual in that little village -the very most."

and prying, not to say offensive, way. "No, it isn't so," he presently ejaculated, by way of soliloquy. "We never got acquainted-am downright sure." "I did not intimate that we had," I

"Oh, that may be-that may be; easy enough, if you belong to New York. I am around, you may be certain of that."

"How as to your being so much imposed upon ?"

put in. He laughed. "You are curious to ago! No money to-day—not a stiver; how hard he must try to be a rogue a full crop. The cherries and plums that they might be brought to a "real-find out who I am. I saw that plain too bad, isn't it?" 'When shall I call poor fellow!"

enough yesterday. You took my bear- again? I ask. 'When call again ?ings all sorts of ways. You can't guess bless me! whenever you like; always

"No, I give it up, opher. My life is spent in studies of magnetism." human nature—that makes a philosopher, doesn't it?"

I assented, and he went on. seldom is necessary. New and varied perseverance is rewarded at last." acquaintances, the intimate ramifica tions of society, the mysteries of this of the picture." mundane life, the weaknesses and foi-ccupation is," I interposed. "It is difficult to comprehend and embrace it by any known appellation, and now he has put it in the hands of a 'Mister, if you will stop where you are ly into the subject." "Just what would most interest me." sudden lose, of I don't know what else, paid. 'Done,' I said. He handed "Do you understand," continued he, but the man has got me down on mag- over the V, and I came away." grandiloquently, "the antagonism be- netism, and he keeps me down. He "Did he pay the rest?"

tion to." credit system?"

He brought one of his little twinkling report to him. He at once blows me "Such as what?" demanded my conorbs to bear on me in a manner so deli- up for being too pressing ; too profes- panion. cately insinuating, that I could positively feel myself changing color.

nodded. "The credit system, sir-the greatest pleasant-no, it isn't pleasant. The think was a very verdant suggestion. blessing of civilization, and the most chances are, the doctor will write to his "You do not suppose," he continued, millions of individuals on this globe my hands, that I acted without orders; law?" a gentleman-what? When I say "a by it? Do you know to what it is conwho are benefitted, I may say vivified, stantly subject? Did it ever occur to nothing-how humiliating." you that to be in such case the medium between persons holding opposite rela- nine hundred dollars against-well, a offensive in dress and appearance, so as tions is one of the noblest missions of humanity? And yet," he added, with for all sorts of fancy goods. The mer- "You are right; but that sort of an entire change of voice, and in a tone chant thought the people were getting thing is pretty much played out. These exceedingly pathetic, "how wearisome, how never-ending the toil."

to be weary of his circumlocution, "you ing, about ten; my lady had not been wagon plastered with common adver-

" A collector ! There !" he exclaimed. "I see you are disappointed. I knew later in the evening, she was at the establishment was so conspicuous that that she must be excused from writing you would be so. (It was impossible opers. By dint f extraordinary perse- everybody knew what it was. This chap a longer letter. She had spent a very blue-gray eye, suspicions of his being a for me not to show it at such an impotent conclusion.) But hold on. I

> I signified my wish for him to proceed. "Yes, you may call me a collector. Understand, I treat the business on the highest grounds of psychology, humanity, and animal magnetism. I shall explain. I have for my constituents doctors and dentists, retail merchants of every sort, first-class mechanics, and so on, and so on. Lawyers and clergymen have little occasion for my services; but undertakers-fashionable undertakers-frequently call in my assistance. Imagine me with hundreds of these bills in hand, ranging from ten dollars to a thousand dollars. I don't refuse the very smallest. These bills are against persons of all grades of respectability. Often, when put in my hand, they are accompanied by a suggestion which the principal thinks he ought to make, but which he does not expect will influence me much-nor does it. For example, he will say, 'I want you to collect one hundred and three dollars from Jones. You must be sure to treat him with courtesy and not wound his so hard-pressed they really can't pay, feelings-he is a gentleman.' Now, if I but they are ashamed to own it. Why, find Jones to be really a gentleman, as if folks would come right out, honor is often the case, I have no difficulty. bright, and say, 'We can't do it, there's Perhaps he will tell me he can't pay at no use talking,' I would wait a whole present, and will explain why. The year; but they say 'next week,' and explain part may all be manufactured 'next month,' and 'in a fortnight,' and out of whole cloth to save his pride: 'very soon indeed, probably Thursday.' but I accept his statement of inability, Now, I always keep an appointment. and I sympathize with all my magnetism and if you could hear how, time after with his excuse, and ask him to fix his time, running through a year or two spent his time rushing from the theatre own time, when I shall call for the years, new excuses are fabricated for to her bedside, and back again." On day, but he postpones, say, for three my pity for these poor, wretched, deweeks. I accept the date with alacrity. graded souls.' I produce my memorandum-book. 'Let | "But I should think, understanding me see-that will bring it to Thursday, their situation, you would let them June 4th. Am very much obliged to know it kindly, and save yourself much you, Mr. Jones. I will call on that day;' running. and I look at him courteously, but with a full magnetic current, by which I am cupation is to collect the money, and I

that man, and he feels I mean busi-

"Does he pay on the day?" "Not always. Perhaps he will give impose on you." I am the hardest-worked man in New me a part, and manufactures another "Ah, it is only when my people un- With surprising readiness and boldness has been lately so badly bled in Wall York city—more than that the most im- excuse—poor fellows! why will they lie dertake to impose on me that my genius he suggested that His Highness should "I am sorry to hear it. I confess I lect, I am talking of a gentleman, and lars. You would know him if I mencan't find the least trace of what you no mistake; then I bring a stronger tioned his name. He never pays anycomplain of in your countenance. By- current to bear, but always as the same thing-belongs to two first-class clubs. the-way," I continued, "your face is polite your humble servant, and the I followed him from one to the other; very familiar to me. Where have I seen next fetches it. Why, such a man feels he would make appointments as often My companion's manner suddenly my bills as a criminal does at a verdict the pompous sort. One day he would replied, tartly. "I said your face was tell you. After seeing my people once At last I caught him at the — Club. just exactly.

> -magnetism-all magnetism !" harder cases ?"

"You have many divisions?"

glad to see you. Take a cigar ? Of take a 'dead beat'-that is, if I know course, I never smoke. If I take a it-never. I don't claim to be able to "Well, I may call myself a philos- cigar or a drink, it is all up with the magnetize a corpse. Sometimes I en-but am encessively polite. I plead that good." "My father intended me for a lawyer, I have infinite running about to do but it was too narrow business-too which precludes my calling for the little scope for real genius-not excite- pleasure of the thing. Still the bill ment enough. In fact, I invented my was banded me to collect, and if he will present occupation—not to say 'invent-ed,' exactly, but I struck out a new be on hand. If I can get his sober jobbing house. I found he was a 'dead path, a new mode of treatment, based attention I am all right, but the chan- beat; he would make appointments for on truly humane principles. Not but ces are he will chaff me two or three every day in the year, and when you what I can be severe if necessary, yet it times, and, as he is a good fellow, my

To tell you in one word would be im- collector-perfectly shameful, consider- I will pay you five dollars, down and possible; I should have to enter large- ing the amount of money I have paid give you my word of honor I will pay. him.' I try to explain. I talk of a you five dollars a week till the whole is cash in his pocket. I get out of the for him. What a life to lead !" made no mistake, but the doctor has. I measures?" I asked. how. I accept the talk : it don't mean said. anything. I know that, but it isn't He laughed at what he seemed to hoping the matter will be overlooked. I did not know, "There are other to see which could using longest by the very pretty, fashionable woman. It was to be as annoying as possible. shaky. "We must look very sharp," he are low fellows, a disgrace to an artistic said, "or we shall lose this." I had no profession. Why, I knew one of these-"In other words," I said, beginning idea of losing it. I called in the morn- vagabouds, who had an old covered to breakfast. I called at one, she was tisements and bills, and a raw-boned engaged; at six, she was at dinner; horse. He went around collecting. The vant, in getting her to name an hour son who owed a bill, and there he would you no one word would define when she would be at home. She was sit an hour or two, so everybody would what I meant, and I have got to go into at home, but dressed for a drive, and say, 'Look there; he is after Thompthe subject with you." was impertinent, very. I always call drew up to a house in Lexington Avthat a good sign, just as getting angry is enue; went in and asked payment of an a good sign. "Who sent me?" she account. The party hadn't the money. wanted to know that. "No one sends The other went out, took a seat in his vertised his farm for sale, and now he me, madame," I said; "it is my own covered cart, and there remained. The is asserting that he has fed out over a a little doubtful or difficult," "Doubt- party, who was a strong, stalwart man, ful! do you call a bill against me doubt- dragged the fellow to the sidewalk and ful?" "With entire respect, I must say thrashed him soundly. It stopped his I do." She rushed in the carriage in a business, and it served him right, I say. rage, and was off. The next day she He was a disgrace to the profession. called at my client's store and paid up No, sir; no. Nothing but magnetice every cent! My man was so much in- and moral sussion. Appeal to the confluenced by her statement of my con- science which is alive in the bosom of duct, coupled with the possession of the every one of God's creation, except in money, that he took me to task for do- that of the 'dead beat' who is a moral ing my duty, although those folks failed | corpse. Appeal, I say, to the conscience, in thirty days from that time. My feel- and bring your magnetism to bear. ings were very much hurt, but I could Very hard work, though-very hard afford to pity the man. I pity all who work, indeed. It requires a deal of runprevaricate and lie, and he did both.

The collector drew a long breath, and fear it will wear me out." "Next come the unfortunates who are

"That is not my occupation. My ocbrought into a peculiar relation with expect to run after it. Yes, nobody runs like me; morning, noon, and inte the night. But I don't mind it." "You have said nothing of those who so ?-or, he may really be obliged to rises to the oscasion. I once had a bill put me off again for the whole-recol- against a club-man-only fifteen dolas much relieved when he pays one of as I liked, but never kept them-was of changed. He looked at me in a curious of not guilty. Can't explain it myself be going to receive a check; another day he would show it to me; it was to "You have given me, I should judge, be cashed in the morning, and I should a very gentle example. You have much be paid. Then he would go to Washington, and no one knows where. I "I should say so! I was about to lost his track once for three months, I call them my people, for I take an He looked very lofty. 'Thomas,' said affectionate interest in them all-after he to the waiter, 'change this bill for seeing them once, I classify right off- me.' The waiter took it, and presently know just how to deal with each type," returned. It was too large. 'You see President of the St. Joseph Fruit "A good many-reduce down to as you your money. You will have to call tion through the farms in that region. "I could not explain unless I told few as possible. Besides the type I again.' 'How large is it?' I asked. So many peach-buds are alive that sanyou my business, and I sink the shop have just mentioned, is the good-natur- 'A hundred dollars,' said he. 'I can guine fruit growers estimate the crop of his salary. He admonishes the memwhen I leave home. Don't I enjoy it ed, careless fellow, able to pay, not change it for you, you see, the big bill peaches at one-third of a full crop. The bers in an indirect way through his here!"-he stretched his legs at full quite ready, because he won't take the dodge is not uncommon, and I go prolength, and they were very long. trouble to raise the money. These are vided); so I took the hundred dollars, were mostly old and sick trees. The the Almighty to put a stop to the practice of dancing in the Assembly chaminto magnetic relations with me. I him his receipt, and came away-a trees are uninjured. The grapes prom- ber. He also represented that the hon-"And no one to impose on you," I present the bill. 'Thunder!' isn't that great triumph, a very great triumph, ise an abundant crop. The strawberries orable members were too much given paid? It ought to have been paid long Poor man, I pity him very much; think are in splendid condition and will yield to levity and foolishness, and he prayed

"You fail sometimes, I suppose?" "I can't say I fail. I never undercounter one without knowing it. It with his step-ma

" How ?" "Sometimes in one way, sometimes in another. A poor man gave me an account for twenty dollars to collect came, coolly tell you he had no money. It was in July; the weather awful hot. "Thus far I don't see the dark side One day the fellow said, 'Call Friday, and I will make a payment. On Fri- for a lecture. "Will come to it presently. I must day I called ; he was in the lower basebles of humankind, all pass in review get on methodically. You must bear ment, packing goods: "No money tobefore me-philosophically interesting in mind, I have often a double trial. A day; that was all he said. Two or -in short, sir, interesting in every physician sends for me-he is desper- three of his fellow-clerks were helping ately hard up. 'Take these accounts,' him. I took off my coat and began to This was delivered in a highly rhetor- he says- recollect, money I must preach to him, I can preach when I ical tone and manner, and with such a have. I go ahead. The first person I try. I went into the detail of my gleam of those blue-gray eyes, that for call on flies in a passion. 'It is not client's situation, the nature of the a moment I doubted my companion's possible! I can't believe it; I dou't debt, the conduct of the debtor, his believe it! Why, I sent the doctor manner of life, his probable end. I "But you have not told me what the fifty dollars last week, with word he soon discovered I flad the attention of must wait another month for the bal- my audience—the chap himself began ance ; he sent answer it was all right, to slacken in his work. At last he said:

tween buyer and seller, employer and defies the doctor, and looks at me as if "Not he. The next week the bird As they turned in their beds, "The engineer employed, first man, middle man, and Has once forgotten his midnight cheer." employed, first man, middle man, and month, and no sooner, just as agreed But I administered punishment righters. "Something of this I have paid atten- on-wouldn't pay sooner if he had the ously. Poor wretch, my heart bleeds "Well, you are also familiar with the house the easiest way possible. I have "And do you never resort to harsh sional; for not managing better, any- "Legal prosecution, for instance," I absurd of all our blessings. Have you patient, tell him a direct falsehood, complacently, "that where my magever considered, sir, of the millions on how the account got by accident into netism fails there is any chance for reach the Treasury every day.

Others go further. I had a bill for told, who make themselves personally

A Bold Stroke.

ning; a wearisome work. I sometimes has extended its operations into the far

"Henri III." was written, by Alexander Dumas and accepted by the theatrical manager, but Dumas had negected his official duties in his application to the piece, and was threatened with the loss of his post. At this his poor mother broke down, and was seized with a fit, at the very moment when success was dawning upon him. "He money. He dislikes to fix too distant a each occasion, you wouldn't wonder at the day before the performance "he ventured on a bold coup, which he had reserved for the last. He asked for an audience with the Duke of Orleans, and was received with some graciousness, He submitted an humble request that trict of Columbia. his Royal Highness would honor the | Corporal punishment is rarely inflictperformance to morrownight by attend- ed in the schools of Russia and ing it. The Duke was not a little Germany. In France it is prohibited, astonished by this demand. But it was In Switzerland school-whippings are impossible for him to comply; he had a left to the regulation of the separate large party to dinner-some twenty or cantons. In England there is constant thirty persons of the highest rank, in- and vigorous whipping, and in America cluding princes. The young author the custom is dying out. was not discouraged by this difficulty. It is stated that Mr. Stockwell, who bring the whole party on to the theatre! self : "When I first came down in The Duke was not displeased, and Wall street I was called Stockwell merely suggested another difficulty. then, when I began to make money, I His dinner was to be at six, while the was called Mr. Stockwell, Then it was play began at seven. The petitioner Captain Stockwell; and subsequently I had another suggestion ready; the play became known as Commodore Stockcould be put an hour later and the din- well. Now it is that red-headed cuss ner an hour earlier! Strange to say, from Cleveland." the Duke inclined to the idea. But would the theatre agree; and where was such a party to be placed? The theatre would agree, and the author had already reserved the grand gallery, hoping that the Duke might consent. The latter smiled, and agreed, and from that day Dumas dates the commencement of his success in life.

WESTERN FRUIT .- J. E. Chamberlain, how it is,' said the magnate; 'if the Growers' Association of Michigan, anboy could change the note, I would give nounces the result of a tour of observapromise equally well.

The Warrenton Gazette

ADVERTISING RATES.

(10 LINER OR LESS CONSTITUTE & SQUARE) otto mounts. Ewo months

cation.

Itigs of luterrat. Nevada has acted compulsory edu-

A married figna man has eloped "How do you answer him?"

don't take me long to find it out. Then
"I look serious, very serious indeed, I punish him, always with a view to his ized eleven new of Kansasorgan-New York sawdu boxes continues to bring fabulous boxes continues ces in the rural tion is to be held in I State Courselay,

A Newport cut washing face in a basin as neatly and skilly as its prond owner.

Fred. Douglass was refer the use of the Opera-house in Letgon, Ky., The announcement the truth is stranger than fiction" is sal, depend chiefly upon who tells it. Nearly all the American a study. ing for the operatic stage Milan lodge in the same house, Proceedings have been tituted against two papers in Toronty publishing a gift-enterprise adverment. With the spring weather suca are taking place in vast numbers, ie papers report a number of catvery A Chicago druggist, whose ick's mistake " cost a woman her li has been sued for $25,000 damages ther A Lynn man has invented a suba-ta for sole leather, which, he claim is cheaper in price and superior in ra-

Two candidates for a local officin Illinois receiving an equal numbed votes lately, "tossed up" to see wih should have the office. The Havana authorities have dec-

ered to the English officers the Bankf to England in a man-of-war, Small contributions to the Units States conscience fund are the order the day. Sums ranging from $1 to $ Poor man, to tell such a lie just for means," I remarked, "which I have neck. When their sport was interrupted heard of. There are collectors, I am one of them was almost dead. In Chicago two pounds of eanned green corn are worth as much as sixty pounds of shelled field corn, the former being

Three boys in Evansville, Ind., tried

The two love-sick Wisconsin girls, who the other tlay unsuccessfully attempted to commit suicide together by poison, have since drowned themselves, A little lady in Schenectady recently most of it brought from Maine.

restless night with a sick doll. A Rhode Island enthusiast at an auction bought a lot of furniture and then asked the crowd to name "the poorest woman in town." The name was given, and the goods were sent to her.

A Massachusetts farmer recently ad-business I am conducting, which is that party in the house seeing this told him hundred barrels of oats to the horses of of collecting bills which are considered to drive on. He declined to do so. The persons who have come to examine it. Some practical jokers, in Worcester, Mass., a month ago put some tacks in a chair for their friend Thomas McGee to sit on, and they produced wounds on his thigh which led to dangerous abcesses, " a ". Minister Washburne has sent $25 to a gentleman in Illinois, to be used in defending the suits instituted by the Chicago and Alton Bailroad Company. against the farmers who refused to pay more than the legal fare.

The order of Patrons of Husbandry

South. The farmers of Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, and Georgia are organizing into granges, and evince a ively juterest in the movement. A telegram operator in Baltimore, recently sued a friend for twenty-five cents, the amount he paid for a telegram sent at his request. He obtained a verdict for the amount and costs, aggreof fifty cents. The Attorney-General of the United States has given his opinion that indigent persons who volunteered in the Union army during the rebellion, and have since that time become insane, are entitled to admission to the Government Asylum for the Insane in the Dis-gating $1.95, but the defendant appealed, and has finally given bond in the sum street, tells, this old joke as upon him-

The employer of a large number of Chinese laborers in North Adams, Mass., still expresses himself much pleased with their achievements, and says they live up to their contract. He regards many of the stories relating to Chinamen as exaggerations or misrepresentations by interested parties, and thinks, from his own experience, that when they are properly treated they become excellent laborers and me-

The Wisconsin Assembly has a chaplain (the Rev. Mr. Richardson) who is determined to do his duty and to earn izing sense" of their weakness and folly.