DR. R. C. PRITCHARD.

There has been no change worth recording since we last reported his state of health. He is confined to his bed, unable to move without assistance, but in perfect possession of all his mental faculties. Everything, that medical skill and devoted attention on the part of his family and friends could do, has been done, and is doing in his case. The result is in the hands of a superior Power, may seem good to Him.
