Look what we do in North Carolina!

In introducing ourselves to strange people in far-away states, in asking them to insure their lives with a North Carolina company, there is vast satisfaction in pointing to our record in our Home State, where, among neighbors and friends, we have been known intimately and our progress has been watched closely, from birth to date.

We say to them—"Look what we do in North Carolina."

"Jefferson Standard wrote in 1923 on North Carolinians over $17,000,000 of insurance—more than was written here by any other Life Insurance Company in the world.

"Jefferson Standard insurance in force in North Carolina exceeds $81,000,000—more than has been placed here by any other Life Insurance Company in the world.

"There are over 38,000 Jefferson Standard policyholders in North Carolina alone."

Climbing

In a short seventeen years, the Jefferson Standard Life has taken its place right at the top with the best Life Insurance Companies in America.

Without the confidence and support of the Old Home State, we could not have gone so fast nor so far. We show our appreciation of this faith by investing your money largely in North Carolina, which helps our state, its people and your company.
