WILMINGTON CHIRONICILE.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1842.

Whole No. 188

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING.

A. A. BROWN, Editor. Office on Front St., next Sumth of the Dank of Cape Fear. The price of this paper, is three dollars per annum, payable in advance. If not paid within one month after subscribing, or after the beginning of a new subscription year, three dollars and fifty cents will be charged, and if not paid until the year expires, four dollars will be charged.

No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless the Editor may think proper to do so. ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at one dollar per square of 14 lines, or less, for the first, and twenty-five cents for each succeeding insertion. 25 per cent, will be deducted from an advertising bill when it amounts to thirty dollars in any one year. Yearly standing advertisements will be inserted at $10 per square.

All legal advertisements charged 25 pr ct. higher. TT Letters to the Editor, on business connected with his paper, must be post-paid.

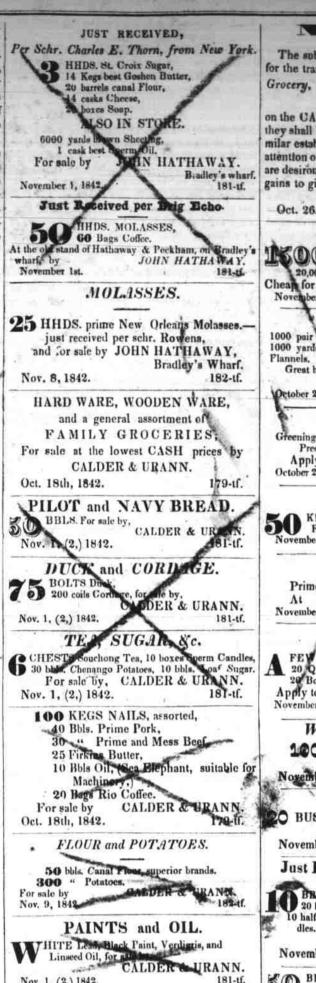

GEORGE W. DAVIS. Commission & Forwarding Merchant. LONDON'S WHARF. The on hand the following articles for sale on consignment. 600 bushels Turks Island Salt, bbls, prime back country Prime Pork. 25 " Beef, Albany Ale, a good article. 15 50 bales New York 50 bbls, sup Tine lour, above Cotton Yarn, assorted, 10 bales Bent 15 hhds, prime long leaf l'obacco, 10 boxesolug do. ALSO ON HAN 75 M. ft. river sawed Board " Scantli 200 " common Shingles, 100 " hest contract, do, 15 " White Oak bbl. Staves. August 29, (31) 1842. 17941. FEATHERS. Just received a consignment of 1000 Hm; Feathers, for sale ourchasers by EO. W. DAVIS. adon's Wharf. 177-11. Oct. 5 WHITE PINE LUMBER. 40,000 FEET just landed ; for sale by GEO. W. DAVIS, London's Wharf. 183-16. November 16. SALT AFLOAT. 5.000 BUSHELS Turks Island, per brig Delaware, just arrived and for sale by GEO. W. DAVIS, London's Wharf. 183.16 November 16. JOHN HULF COMMISSION MERCHANT. OFFICE FOOT OF MULBERRY STREET. Offers for sale : 100,000 ft, river flooring boards, an A. 1 article.

30,000 ft. wide boards.

the dock.

to receive

cheap:

NO AND DED

The subscribers having formed a copartnership for the transaction of a general

Grocery, Dry Goods, Hardware, Hat, Boot and Shoe business, on the CASH principle, flatter themselves that they shall be enabled to sell cheaper than any similar establishment, and respectfully solicit the attention of country merchants and all others who are desirous of making cheap and judicious bargains to give them a call. SHELTON & MALLORY.

Oct. 26. 180-1

SEGARS.

16000 Principe, 10,000 Havana, 20,000 Florida, Cheap for cash. SHELTON & MALLORY. ber 2. [81-tf PLANTATION GOODS. heavy Brogans. 500 negro Linsey Caps and 1000 yards egro Kerseys. Flannels. Wool Hats. Calicoes. Great ba tins in the above articl he had. SHELTON & MALLORY. October 26, 1812. 180-tf. APPLES, &c. Cheese and Crackers. Greenings and Russets. Preserved Ginger. Dried Currants. Apply to SHELTON & MALLORY. October 26, 1842. NALS.

KEGS superior Taunton Nails, assorted sizes For sale by SHERTON & MALLORY. 181-tf. FOR SADE. Prime Sugar House MODASSES. SHELTON & MALLORY'S. At

181-tf. CHEAP FOR CASH. FEV barrels fresh Mackerel,

20 Quintals Cod Fish, 20 Boxes Herring. SHELTON & MALLORY. Apply to vember 2.

WRAPPING PAPER. SHELTON & MALLORY. November 16. 183-tf. SHELL BARKS. BUSHELS prime nuts, just received by SHELTON & MALLORY. November 16. 183-tf. Just Received per schr. Increase. BRLS. Prime Pork. 10 kegs Joshen Butter 20 bb Western Flour. Kegs Buckwheat to boxes Sperm Cando. 10 half bbl For sale low by SHELON & MALLORY. November 9th, 1642. 182-16

FROM LONGFELLOW'S " VOICES OF THE NIGHT." A PSALM OF LIFE. What the heart of the Young man said to the Pralmist. Tell me not, in mournful numbers, "Life is but an empty dream !" For the soul is dead that slumbers. And things are not what they seem.

Life is real ! Life is carnest ! And the grave is not its goal, " Dust thou art, to dust returnest," Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow. Is our destined end or way; But to act, that each to-morrow Find us farther than to-day.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting, And our hearts, though stout and brave, Still, like muffled drums, are beating, Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle, In the bivouac of Life, Be not like dumb, driven cattle ! Be a hero in the strife !

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant ! Let the dead Past bury its dead ? Act .-- act in the living Present ! Heart within, and tiod o'erhead !

Lives of great men all remind us We can make our lives sublime, And, departing, leave behind us Footsteps on the sands of time;

Footprints, that perhaps another, Sailing o'er life's solemn main, A forloca and shipwrecked brother, Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labor and to wait.

Extracts fr om Dickens' American Notes. The President of the Republic.

'The President's mansion is more like an English Club-house, both within and without, than any other kind of establishment with which I can compare it. The ornamental ground about it has been laid out in garden walks; they are pretty, and agreeable to the eye; though they have that uncomfortable air of having been made yesterday, which is far from favorable to the display of such beauties.

My first visit to this house was on the morning after my arrival, when I was carried thither, by an official gentleman, who was so kind and charge himself with my presentation to the President

We entered a large hall, and having twice or thrice rung a bell which nobody answered, walked without further ceremony through the rooms on the ground floor, as divers other gentlemen (mostly with their hats on, and their hands in their pockets) were doing very leisurely. Some at a business-like table covered with papers, sat Easters and men of Boston raising like this, I'm the President himself. He looked somewhat glad of it, but I'm none of that raising nor of that the President himself. He looked somewhat worn and anxious, and well he might, being at war with every body; but the expression of his face was mild and pleasant, and his manner was remarkably unaffected, gentlemanly, and agreea-ble. I thought that in his whole carriage and de-meanor he became his station singularly well. Being advised that the sensible etiquette of the republican court admitted of a traveller, like my-real declining, without any impropriety, an inviself, declining, without any impropriety, an invi-tation to dinner, which did not reach me until I self, declining, which did not reach me until I tation to dinner, which did not reach me until I had concluded my arrangements for leaving Washington some days before that to which it re-forester, but I know that the other passengers was on the occasion of one of those general as-semblies which are held on certain nights be-tween the hours of nine and twelve o'clock, and are called, rather oddly, levees.

I went, with my wife, at about ten. There was a pretty dense crowd of carriages and people in the court-yard, and, so far as I could make out, there were no very clear regulations for taking up or setting down of company. There were cer-tainly no policemen to soothe startled horses, either by sawing at their bridles or flourishing truncheons in their eyes; and I am ready to make oath that no inoffensive persons were knocked violently on the head, or poked acutely in their backs or stomachs, or brought to a stand still by any such gentle means and then taken into custody for not moving on. But there was no confusion or disorder. Our carriage reached the porch in its turn, without any blustering, swearing, shouting, backing, or other disturbance; and we dismounted with as much ease and comfort as though we had been escorted by the whole metropolitan force from A to Z inclusive.

The suite of rooms on the ground floor were lighted up, and a military band was playing in the hall. In the smaller drawing-room, the centre of a circle of company, were the President and his daughter-in-law, who acted as the lady of the mansion; and a very interesting, graceful, and accomplished lady, too. One gentleman who stood among this group appeared to take upon himself the functions of a master of the ceremonies. I saw no other officers or attendants, and none were needed.

The great drawing-room, which I have already mentioned, and the other chambers on the groundfloor, were crowded to excess. The company was not, in our sense of the term, select, for it comprehended persons of very many grades and hasses; nor was there any great display of costy attire, indeed some of the costumes may have been, for aught I know, grotesque enough. But the decorum and propriety of behaviour which prevailed were unbroken by any rude or disagreeable incident; and every man, even among the miscellaneous crowd in the hall who were admitted without any orders or tickets, to look on, appeared to feel that he was a part of the institution, and was responsible for its preserving a becoming character, and appearing to the best advan-

That these visiters, too, whatever their station. were not without some refinement of taste and appreciation of intellectual gifts, and gratitude to hose men who by the peaceful exercise of great abilities shed new charms and associations upon the homes of their countrymen, and elevate their character in other lands, was remember nim as worthily !

When we started again, some of the boldest' spirits on board made bold to say to the obvious ccasion of this improvement in our prospects, "Much obliged to yos, siv;" whereanto the brown forester (waving his frand, and still walking up and down as before,) replied, 'No, you' an't.----You're nome o' my raising. You may act for You renome o' my raising. You may act for yourselves, you may. I have pinted out the way. Down Easters and Johny Cakes can fol-low if they please. I an't a Johnny Cake, I an't. I am from the brown forests of the Mississippi, I am—and so on, as before. He was unanimous-ly voted one of the tables for his bed at night here is a great contest for the tables-in c ration of his public services; and he had the warmest corner by the stove throughout the rest of the journey. But I never could find out that he did any thing except sit there; nor did I hear him speak sgain until, in the midst of the bustle and turnoif of getting the luggage ashore in the dark at Pittsburg, I stumbled over him as he the dark at Pittsburg, I stumbled over him as he sat smoking a cigar on the cabin steps, and heard him muttering to himself with a short laugh of defiance, I an't a Johnny Cake, I an't. I'm from the brown forests of the Mississippi, I are, damme! I am inclined to argue from this that he had never left off soying so; but I could not make affidavit of that part of the story, if requir-ed to do so by my Queen and country.

A Native Chieftain.

There chanced to be, on board this bost, in addition to the usual dreary crowd of passengers, one Pitchlynn, a chief of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, who sent in his card to me, and with whom I had the pleasure of a-long conversation.

He spoke English very well, though he had not begun to learn the language, he told me, until he was a young man grown. He had not read many books, and Scott's poetry appeared to have left a strong impression on his mind, espe-cially the opening of 'The Lady of the Lake,' and the great battle scene in 'Marmion,' in which no donbt, from the congeniality of the subjects to his own pursuits and tastes, he had great interest and delight. He appeared to understand correct-ly all he had read, and whatever fiction had enly all he had read, and whatever belief, had done so listed his sympathy in its belief, had done so keenly and earnestly, I might almost say forcely. He was dressed in our ordinary every day contume, which hung about his fine figure and with indifferent grace. On my telling him that I regretted not t fied by their reception of Washington Irving, my dear friend, who had recently been appointed minister at the court of Spain, and who was among them that night, in his new character, for the first and has been appointed were losing many things besides the dress, and the first and last time before going abroad. I would soon be seen upon the earth no more, but sincerely believe that in all the madness of Ame. he wore it at home, he added, provedly. rican politics few public men would have been so He told me that he had been away from home. west of the Mississippi, seventeen monthe, and was now returning. He had Been chieffy at carnestly, devotedly, and affectionately caressed, as this most charming writer: and I have seldom as this most charming writer: and r have settled in a method be-respected a public assembly more than I did this cager throng, when I saw them turning with one mind from noisy orators and officers of state, were not settled yet (he said in a method by and flocking with a generous and honest impulse | way) and he feared' never would be, for what round the man of quiet pursuits; proud of his could a few poor Indians do against such well promotion as reflecting back upon their country; skilled men of business as the whites I He had no love for Washington; tired of and grateful to him with their whole hearts for the store of graceful fancies he had poured out towns and cities very soon; and longed for the among them. Long may he dispense such trea- forest and the prairie. I asked him what he thought of Congress? He answered, with a smile, that it wanted dignity in sures with unsparing hands; and long may they an Indian's eyes. & Brown Forester of the Mississippi. He would very much like, he said to see En-We had another odd specimen on board of a gland before he died; and spoke with much intedifferent kind. This was a thin-faced, spare-figrest about the great things to be seen there .---When I told him of that chamber in the British Museum wherein are preserved household memopart of the journey; indeed I don't remember rials of a race that ceased to be, thousands of him. We had previously looked into another cham-ber fitted all round with a great bare wooden desk or counter, whereon lay files of newspapers, to are. The conjunction of events which made This led us to speak of Mr. Catlin's gallery-The canal extends to the foot of the mountain, which he praised highly. observing, that his own and there of course, it stops; the passengers beportrait was among the collection, and that all the likenesses were 'elegant.' .Mr. Cooper, he ning-room during his hours of consultation at counterpart of the first, which awaits them on said, had painted the red man well; and so would the other side. There are two canal lines of I think, he knew, if I would go home with him There were some fifteen or twenty persons in passage-boats; one is called the Express, and one and hunt buffaloes, which he was quite anxious I There were some fifteen or twenty persons in the room. One, a tall, wiry, muscular old man, from the west; sunburnt and swarthy; with a brown-white hat on his knees, and a giant unappeople to come up, both sets of passengers being laughed heartify. He was a remarkably handsome man; sound and twiching the hard lines about his mouth, as if he had made up his mind 'to fix' the President on what he had to say, and wouldn't bate him a grain. Another, a Kentucky farmer; six-feet six in height, with his hat on, and his hands under his coat-tails, who leaned ogainst the wall and kicked the floor with his heel, as though he had Time's head under his shoe, and were literally suffered the boat to be towed off with the whole Time's head under his shoe, and were literally suffered the boat to be towed off with the whole civilized, and to make themselves 'killing' him. A third, an oval-faced, bilious- freight aboard nevertheless; and away we went with what the whites knew for it was their only looking man, with sleek black hair cropped close, and whiskers and beard shaved down to blue dots, who sucked the head of a thick stick, and from time to time tock it out of his mouth, to see how it was getting on. A fourth did nothing all on deck,) and without addressing any body querors, they must be swept away before the strides of civilized society. When we shook hands at parting, I told film indeed, all these gentlemen were so very perse-vering and energetic in this latter particular, and me. This may be all very well with Down he must come to England, as he longed to see the bestowed their favors so abundantly upon the Easters and men of Boston raising, but it won't land so much; that I should hope to see him there. carpet, that I take it for granted the presidential soit my figure no how; and no two ways about one day, and that I could promise him he would housemaids have high wages, or to speak more that; and so I tell you. Now, I'm from the be well received and kindly treated. He was evbrown forests of the Mississippi, I am, and when idently pleased by this assurance, though he rewhich is the American word for salary, in the the sun shines on me, it does shine-a little. It joined, with a good-humored smile and an arch don't glimmer where I live, the sun don't. No, shake of his head, that the English used to be 80,000 contract shingles. 300.000 common do. Nov. 1, (2,) 1842. One raft of handsome shipping timber, 45 feet long, in CIGARS. Having the finest wharf in Wilmington, I am prepared 100 Boxes for sale by. NAVAL STORES. CALDER & URANN. for export, and will make liberal advances on consign-Nov. 1, (2,) 1949 - 181-tf. ments to my friends at the North. Prompt attention wil be paid to securing freights for vessels. I can also sup 50 Bags Rio Coffee, ply orders for any description of TIMBER & LUMBER, 12 Boxes Sperm Candles, assorted. sawed at River Mills at the shortest notice, Just received and for sale by BARRY & BRYANT. 170-tf. August 17. Oct. Factorage and Commission Business. October 5. 177-If. HE subscriber intends continuing the above busi 30 ness in Wilmington, at his new stand, front of Col J. McRae's office on the wharf two doors below the Rock BOOTS, SHOES, AND BROGANS. 11 Cases various Rinds men's and women's Shoes, Brogans, and Boots, Indian and Star sale by BARRY & BRY4.N'T. Spring, where he will be pleased to see those having business in his way. He has the following in store for sale 60 BAGS November 16. 20 bbls. Fayetteville Flour, 10 " Mess and Prime Pork, And a line of the second 10 small packages no. 1 and 2 mackatel, TOBACCO. 25 Boxes manufactured Tobacco, just received p Ostrich; for sale by BANEY & BRYANT. November 16 400 lbs, cotton yarn, assorted sizes, 5 bbbs, best Molasses, ALSO .- An assortment of groceries. &c. &c. J. I. BRYAN. Oct. 26, 1842. FLOUR from VIRGINIA. 180-tf. and for sale by urels Petersburg superfine Flour, landing Baltimore. THE subscriber hereby warns all persons not to give ALSO credit to any one, not even the woman he married, Const and Fayenerille Flour. on his account, except his order. R. W. BROWN & Co. 163-31. HENRY N. HOWARD. Sept. 28th, 1842. 176-tf. Nov. 16, 1842. KAMILY PROVISIONS. On Consignment. HAVE addense fresh supply of Com, Peas, Meal. 5 HHDS, Stone Ware, assorted, Jars, Pots, & Jugs, Encon, (sides and good Flour, Buckwheat Flour, hams.) Coffee, Sugar, callinges, Onions, Seine Twine, good Apples, by the ourred bushel or dozen, Mountain Butter, Irish Polatocs, and many other necessary articles. With covers, a a sample,

The Manufacturer wind accute orders from the undersigned, to suit the demand and wishes of retailers.
50 one gallon Demijohns.
10 hampers Bottles & November 2. All of which will be sold low for the times. A.J. BATTLE. Corks. 20 bbls. Vinega R. W. BROWN, & Co. 181-tf. November 2. November 9th, 1842. 182-4t. Bank of Cape Fear, ? 12th October, 1842. 5 PPLICATION will be made to the next General OVSTPERS. OF the best kind, prepared in all manner of ways, or in the shell, may be had at Assembly of the State of North Carolina, to alter the period of the annual meetings of the Stockholders of this Bank, from the 1st Monday of January to the 1st night and day, at ISAAC BELDEN'S, Monday of May, as being more clement and convenient. JOHN HILL, Pres't. Quince's Alley. 182-11. November 9th, 1842. Oct. 12. 178-11. U. S. District Court of N. Carolina NOTICE. IN BANKUPTCY. D. Smaw, of New Hanover County, Tailor, to b declared a bankrupp of Wilmington on Monday, the 19 HEREBY forwarn all persons from hunting or driving with gun or dogs, on my land, known as the Edens' Mill land, and the Downey land, or fishing in my day, the 19th declared a bankrupt at of December next: Joseph Scull, of Brunston County, Farmer, to be de-clared a bankrupt at Winnington on Monday, the 19th of December next. By order to the Court, Mill Pond, under the penalty of the law; or any negro slave, or free negro with dogs found on the said lands, the dogs will be shot and the negro severely punished. MILES COSTIN. H. H. POTTER, October 12th, 1842. 178-6m. Acting Clerk of Court in Bankmunicy. NOTICE. November 7th, (16,) 1842. 183-34 HERE will be an application made to the next en FLOUR, TOBACCO, PORK, &c. suing General Assembly for this State, to give to the 20 Barrels Canal Flour, best brand, ammissioners of the Town of Wilmington and their successors in office, all the property that may hereafter escheat within the limits of the town, for the purpose of 20 10 half bris, do. do. 12 barrels Mess and Prime Pork. 8 barrels Prime Beef. 17 hhds, leaf Tobacco. 20 boxes manf'd Tobacco. 25 boxes Fayetteville mould Candles. building a Town Hall and otherwise to improve the town. There will also be an application made to the said Gene-ral Assembly to extend the limits of the town of Wilbags Feathers. 15 bales Cotton Yarn, (Mallett's.) 20 For sale on consignment by W. H. LIPPITT. Mington. October 5, 1842. 177-tf. 183-tf. November 16, ...

SO BBLS. Apples, (Spitzenberg Just received and for sale by RUSSELL & GAMMELL. 1814 JUST RECEIVED PER BRIG BALTIC ON CONSIGNMENT. 16 Hhds. prime Molasses, 30 M. sawed laths, foo Barrels Eastern Potatoes. RUSSELL & GAMMELL. 177-16. BLS. N. E. Rum. 20 bbls. Whiskey. 00 kegs assorted Nails. For male by RUSSELL & GAMMELL. November 9th, 1842. 182-41 Shot, for sale low to close consignmen RUSSELL & GAMMELL. November 1st 181-11. 25 BBLS, Cana Flour. 15 Prime Pork. 10 kegs Gosban Butter. Grasks C 20 boxes and half boxes new Raisins. Casks Cheese. 500 lbs. Woolsey & Woolsey, Loaf Sugar. 5 half bbls. No. 1. Mackeral. Just received r sale by RUSSELL & GAMMELL. November 9th, 1842 182-41. For Sale. 100 KEGS Nails, searched sizes, 20 hhds. Coal protein and screened, suitable for grates and stoves. S. YORKE. November 9th, 1842. 182-tf. FOR SALE 5000 FIRE BRICK, superior quality ; suita Apply to . YORKE. 181-tf. FOR SALE. 25 BBLS fresh ground Flour, 10 " rotatoes, for family use, 20 Kees Pennsylvania Buckwheats Apply to L. S. YORKE. 181-4 5000 Back stretcher Brick, a superior article for sale by L. S. YORKE. November 2. III-tf 20 boxes brown Soap. For sale by, L. S. YORKE. November 9th, 1842. 182.16. Hats, Caps, and Shoes 20 cases new and fashionable Hats. Wool Hats, 30 do An assortment of gentlemens and boys' Cloth and Velvet CAPS, 1200 pair heavy Brogans, 400 " mens and boys'kip ditto. 500 " womens' and misses' leather and Morocco BOOTS and SHOES. Just received and for sale- at very reduced pri-OWEN HOLMES.

of these had ladies with them, to whom they were showing the premises; others were lounging on the chairs and solas; others, in a perfect state of exhaustation from listlessness, were yawning drearily. The greater portion of this assemblage were rather asserting their supremacy than doing any thing else, as they had no particular business there, that any body knew of. A few were closely eyeing the moveables, as if to make quite sure that the President, (who was far from popular) had not made away with any of the furniture, or sold the fixtures for his private bene-

After glancing at these loungers; who were scattered over a pretty drawing-room, opening upon a terrace which commanded a beautiful prospect of the river and the adjacent country; and who were sauntering, too, about a larger state-room called the Eastern Drawing-room; we went up stairs into another chamber; where were certain visiters, waiting for audiences. At the sight of my conductor, a black in plann clothes and yellow slippers, who was gliding noiselessly about, and whispering messages in ured man, of middle age and statue, dressed in a the ears of the more impatient, made a sign dusty drabbish-coloured suit, such as I never saw of recognition, and glided off to announce before. He was perfectly quiet during the first him.

or counter, whereon lay files of newspapers, to are. The conjunction of events which made which sundry gentlemen were referring. But him famous happened, briefly, thus. there were no such means of beguiling the time in this apartment, which was as unpromising and tiresome as any waiting room in one of our ing conveyed across it by land carriage, and then public establishments, or any physician's di- taken on afterwards by another canal boat, the home.

brown-white hat on his knees, and a giant unit people to come up, both sets of passengers being brella resting between his legs; who sat bolt up. conveyed across it at the same time. We were right in his chair, frowning steadily at the carpet, the Express company; but when we had crossed and twitching the hard lines about his mouth, as the mountain, and had come to the second boat. but whistle. A fifth did nothing but spit. And whomsoever, soliloquised as follows: genteelly, an ample amount of 'compensation,' case of all public servants.

We had not waited in this room many minutes I'm a brown forester, I am. I ain't a Johny very fond of the red men when they wanted before the black messenger returned and conduct- cake. There are no smooth skins where I live. their help, but had not cared much for them ed us into another of smaller dimensions, where, We're rough men there .- Rather. If Down since.

30 20 bbls. Prime Pork. 3 hhds. Bacon 10 boxes Sperm Candles. 10 boxes 8 by 10 Window glass. For sale by, ces for cash, by Oct. 25, 1842. 180-tf.