THE MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Office No. 11 Wall Street, New York. THIS Institution offers advantages to those desir-L ous of effecting Insurances on Lives which are unequalled.

The importance of Life Insurance must be apparent to all, especially to those who, after death, will leave families unprovided for, and the Mutual system, as practised by this Company, combines the greatest security at the least actual expense. Its peculiar advantages are,

1st. A prompt payment of losses.
2d. When the annual premium is over $50, one-fourth may be paid in cash, and three-fourths in a secured Note, at 12 months, bearing 6 per cent. interest; or it may be paid half yearly, quarterly, or monthly. Those taking out life policies, may pay half cash and give their individual Notes for the balance, if satisf cotory to the officers.

3d. A full participation in all the profits. The success of the company has been unparalelled. During the first 20 months of its existence it issued 3007 policies, and after paying all losses and expenses, a capital of nearly $200,000 remained, which has, during this year, been increased to about $400,000. Any risk taken connected with the duration of life. Slaves
