CHARLESTON MARKET.

March 9. There was a good demand for Cotton yesterday, but the operations were somewhat restricted in consequence of the high prices demanded. The sales reached fully 1800 bales, prices in most instances were even more stringent than on the previous day. The transactions were at extremes ranging from 64 to Sc.; a very large portion of the day's business however, were at prices within the range of 71 a 71.

Rice.-The Rice market continues without change. The sales reached 200 tierces, at prices ranging from $3 3-16 to $3 5-16ths, per hundred.

NORTHERN MARKETS.

The Northern Mail yesterday was almost a failure; so much so as to leave us without any late news from the Northern Markets.

The doubt and uncertainty that still exist relative to the Treaty, and the contradictory statements daily received from the seat of government, keep the public mind in a feverish condition, and the stock market is ON the 14th of March, at the Court House, will be in a very unsettled state. While some are suffering boundary street, next south-east corner of Mrs. Calunder the evils of a secret session in the Senate, it is | der's new House. Lot is 66 by 150 feet, one story suspected that parties in Wall Street, New York. House and Kitchen, and good Well Water in the have facilities for reaching the interior of the chamber of that body, superior to any other class of operators.

The news from Europe is of such a favorable charecter, as regards financial and commercial affairs, that any further exportation of specie to any extent is not very probable. Should the rise in Cutton be permanent, our exports will rapidly increase, and the balance of trade change the specie current in our favor.

A speedy improvement is expected in monetary affairs in New York and other northern cities-so the papers say. But they do not yet appear to have realized that prosperity in this respect, so confidently predicted some time ago - the notions concerning which we took the liberty, at the lime, of expressing some doubts; as we now do as to any very sudden improvement. If the Treaty is ratified, things will cerainly assume a favorable aspect. We must wait the slow and sately march of Legislation.

NEW YORK

THIS MONSTER ESTABLISHMENT, by far the most extensive and sustained at greater expense than any other Company in America, and probably in Europe—the Travelling Cortice, and probably in Europe—the Travelling Cortice, eensisting of over 200 Persons and Horses, it is respectfully announced, will exhibit in Wilmington, during the week, under the Leviathan Pavillon, capable of scating comfortably, Four Thousand Persons!! By common consent of the Equestrian and Musical world, here is congregated the best Brass Band, Lady Equestrian, Principal Equestrian, Scene Rider. Vaulter, and Tight Rope Dancer, that is found attached to any or all the Circles in the World, to wit: the Baltimore Brass Band ! and its Leader, Mr. C. Volandt, the Lion Bugler, the notes of whose Magic Silver Bugle are superior to Sivori on the Violin, or Herz upon the Piano-Forte.

Mi-lemoiselle Herietta!! from Franconi's, Paris, and Astley's London, the greatest Equestrian, male or female, past or present.

Hernandez!! First Principal Equestrian of the Age, who accomplishes backwards, every feat attempt-

Mr. G. N. Eldred!! the Modern Ducrow! and Only Dramatic Equestrian extant. The Projector of the New and beautiful Drama, entitled Mexican Monk, General Taylor, Santa Anna, Yankee Volun-teer, and the Goddess of Liberry. Mr. Wm. B. Davis! the Gentleman Comedian, lau of the English Opera House, London, where he won the highest honors ever awarded to any Equestrian in Mr. Geo. Sweet! the 72 Somerset Man!! known throughout the World as the best Tight Rope Dancer ving, performing Feats of Balancing on Drums, Tables and Chairs, at an Elevation of Ten Feet aborthe Rope, throwing from this difficult position, a For

rard Somerset, and to the great astonishment of his auditors, maintaining his balance on the Rope without injury to himself. Mr. Win. Kincald! the Only correct Personification of the Primitive Indian Warrior, on his favorite Cas-tillian Mare, will perform without Saddle or Bridle all the most daring feats ever witnessed on Padded Carlo, the Immortal Clown, of the Royal Amphitheatres, London, and late of Bowery Theatre, New York, where he won the cognomen of the Modern Grimaldi and Shaksperian Clown!!

The foregoing are alone and unequalled the wide world over, all stars of the first magnitude; such as were never before found in conjunction, either of whom, (as they have done,) would, singly, create a sensation in any capital in Europe, and together, have caused the progress of this great Circus from New York to New Orleans, the past season, to resemble a triumphal March, and to be visited by over Five Hundred Thousand Patrons, thousands of whom had never before witnessed Circus performances. In evidence that no undue importance is attached to the foregoing nonpareds of Equitation, and the Gymnasis, there need only be mentioned the names of the residue of the Troupe-Brilliant Luminaries, that would be accounted fixed Stars in any other system than that in which they are now revolving.

Mons Lee! the Celebrated Cannon Ball Hutler!

Mr. Robeson the Roman Gladiator, and daring Four and Six Horse Rider.

Mons. R. Foster! the Champion Vaulter and unbler of Europe, and (Sweet excepted,) of the before buying elsewhere.

Mast. Reynolds, the Equilibrist and Necromancer. Mr. Durand! the Wonderful, Grand and Lofty Pumbler, Aerobatic and Pantominist.

Mr. R. Edwards, the Prince of Darkies and Medal Prize Dancer.
Mr. H. Franklin, of a Versulity of Genius, that lefics an attempt to define his position. Also, the Two Beautiful Dancers, Misses Caroline and Louise Carlo. Mast. Wm. Carlo! will appear with his Father, Sig. Carlo, in the most beautiful scenes of Living Mr. Roman, the most distinguished Banjo-Player and Ethiopian Vocalist in the south. Together with T. Stanley J. Troy, J. Caruthers, and a host of others, each so good, and yet so equal, that to give either the preference would be invidious. The Costumes, Trappings, and Paraphanalia, reently completed in New York, for this summer camsaign, have just come to hard, and are pronounced like everything else in this Establishment, incomparable. The high order and purity of the Entertainment, are the distinguished characteristics of this Circus, and have won the Management many cherwill readily discover that here is the material, from which may be compounded an Equestrian, Gymnastic and Musical Fete! which the intelligent, the refined and the virtuous may enter into with zest. The usual verbiage about "good order," "decorum," &c., is dispensed with, since the capacity to concentrate such an immense amount of talent, and to clicit its stougth presupposes the capacity, as well as the inelization, to render it, in every particular, proper to be artiripated in by all. The Magnificent and Gorgeous Appearance of the Grand Procession, formed by the Company, on entering each place of exhibition, is the most sublime and imposing scene ever witnessed in the Southern country. The carriages, thirty in number, built upon the most modern and improved style, carved, painted, and onamented with Gold Letters and Stripes, in the most costly and splendid manner. The Harness is invented and ornamented in a style of costly magnificence, never before attempted in the United States. The Imposing Grandeur of a Procession of this kind, extending over a Mile in length, preceded by the most rostly Band Chariot, drawn by Twelve Beautiful Cream Colored Horses, may be easier-imagined than

Sig. Carlo, though only 12 months in America, is known throughout the Union as the most astonish ing and indescribable performer of the age: capable of performing One Thousand Tricks!!
