SCARCELY has fen short years claraed, since is a humble attempt was made to combine, is a sutal-ble medical preparation, a few of the herbs of the Indian. All was dark at the time as to the result. The most that could be estimated was, that the principles adopted as the basis to build upon, were sound. So much reliance was placed upon calomel and the lancet, and the ill success of the experiment would have tended to confirm that reliance while it should have tended to confirm that reliance, while is shook purpose of the projector.

Now, however, all doubt and difficulty are at an end. Every where, this medicine has been greeted with welcome; everywhere has its use been attended with the most gratifying success. Prom small becomings its sales are now counted by MILLIONS, suffit to neld in higher estimation at the present time, than when it was originally introduced.
