COMMERCIAL. A LORING, Editor and Proprietor.

I. I. HOWZE, Associate Editor.

Agreeably to notice given some time ago, the subseriber preposes to publish a Daily Paper, it this town in the some elze of the present tri-weekly Commercial. Considerable anxiety has been expressed by many of the community for such a publication, and we trust it will meet with a spirited and liberal support. It is unnecessary to say much in regard to the character of the paper. It has supported the President elect, and the Editors hope to tind his administrathem such as to continue that support. But although the Commercial is Whig, the great interests of Incernal Improvements are considered paramount to every other consideration and the men and measures best enjourned to secure the benefits of this system, will be sustained by this paper, to the best of the Editors' ability

The price of the Daily is $3 per annum. An additional charge of 3-7ths will be made to the present rates of the ri-weekly for advertising in the Daily Subscribers who intend to advertise by the year, are requested to write the word "advertiser" opposite T. LURING. Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 1, 1849.

To Dr. Wright. Philadelphia :
Dear Sir - Having been afficied with a most distressing humor for many years past, and having used every means that afforded the remotest probability of relief, I was at last induced to try your valuable Indian Vegetable Pills. I am now satisfied that I have received more benefit from the use of the than from all the medicines I have heretofore taken. I therefore take piensure in recommending the Pille to all who are or have been suffering from any humor, believing, as I do, that they act directly upon the blood, and by their purifying virtue, will completely cleanse it from impurity.
