SELLING OFF AT COST.
 The Balance of Stock on hand is offered at New York Cost.
THERE WILL BE FOUND A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF READY MADE CLOTHING, of our Manufacture, together with a good assortment of outfitting goods: Broad Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of every variety.
 As our stock is generally known to our friends and patrons, it would be needless to further advertise.
 The above stock is now offered at Private sale. Should I fail to dispose of the entire stock by the first of March, I shall then sell the balance at Public Auction.
 N. B. My friends and patrons who have not settled their accounts, will confer a favor by calling and settling without further notice, as they well know that I adopted the Cash system on Market street. I hope none will be so ungenerous as to think hard of this urgent request. All who fail to settle by the first of March, will find their accounts in the hands of an Officer, for collection, without partiality or favor.

DAILY COMMERCIAL,
 T. LORING, Editor and Proprietor.
 B. I. HOWZE, Associate Editor.

Agreeably to notice given some time ago, the subscriber proposes to publish a Daily Paper in Wilmington, of the same size of the present tri-weekly Commercial.
 Considerable anxiety has been expressed by many of the community for such a publication, and we trust it will meet with a spirited and liberal support.
 It is unnecessary to say much in regard to the character of the paper. It has supported the President such as to continue that support. But although the Commercial is a Whig, the great interests of Internal Improvements are considered paramount to every other consideration—and the men and measures best calculated to secure the benefits of this system, will be sustained by this paper, to the best of the Editors' ability.
 The price of the Daily is 83 per annum. An additional charge of 3 1/2 will be made to the present rates of the tri-weekly for advertising in the Daily. Subscribers who intend to advertise by the year, are requested to write the word "advertiser" opposite their names.

MRS. MAXWELL'S MILINARY.
 First House north of the Presbyterian Church.
 THE SUBSCRIBER, grateful for her past patronage, would call the attention of the Ladies of Wilmington and vicinity, to her large and well selected stock of Milinary and fancy goods, which she is desirous of disposing of at greatly reduced prices, in order to make room for an additional supply of Spring goods.
 Ribbons 1/2 to 1 1/2 cts. sold formerly at 25 to 30 cts. per yard; also Dress caps, Head-dresses, Straw and Silk bonnets in the same proportion, also Pamela bonnets constantly on hand.
 Mrs. J. MAXWELL, would invite particular attention to her superior method of cleaning the Pamela or Tape Bonnets, making them equal to new, also straw bonnets cleaned and pressed, on the most reasonable terms for the trade.
 Feb. 1, 1849. 136-4m.

THE BATTERY.
 NEW SERIES.
 Early in February, 1849, the subscriber will issue the first number of a weekly Political Newspaper, being a new series of the Battery, which has been published during the canvass which terminated in the election of TAYLOR and FILLMORE on the 7th of November last.
 The leading object of the BATTERY will be to develop and sustain the principles by which the late political change has been accomplished, and on which the permanence and success of the new Administration must rest.
 Subordinate to the main object of the BATTERY, news, literary and miscellaneous departments will be introduced in its columns, such as may be requisite to render it a complete Record of the Times.
 That the subscriber possesses the means to render the proposed Journal one of commanding interest and influence, he feels that he need not assure the numerous readers of his campaign series, whose generous and hearty encouragement is the main spring of the present enterprise. The continuance of their kind aid he respectfully solicits—reminding them that a position now is still a position to be maintained; and that in view of the organized and powerful party in opposition, the Administration of Gen. Taylor will require all the activity, energy, and zeal of the canvass.
 It is our intention soon to commence the publication of a DAILY PAPER devoted to similar objects, the proposals of which will be issued hereafter.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY PAPER:
 The Battery will be published every week on a large sized sheet, (folio form,) good paper and a type, at the following rates:
 Single copies, per annum, $7.00
 Three copies, per annum, $5.00
 No paper will be sent unless the order is accompanied by the money.
 POSTMASTER'S are authorized to act as our agents in procuring subscribers, and they may retain 20 per cent. upon the subscription price of $2.00 on all sums they remit to us.
